

Alumni Notes

By the Staff

1904

Merritt, M. L. After finishing at Iowa State College, Merritt spent about 3 years in forestry work in the Philippine Islands, later returning to the United States, where he re-entered government forestry work. At present he is Assistant District Forester of the Alaska District, which comprises approximately 20 million acres of National Forests.

1907

Balthis, R. F. On graduation Balthis entered government forestry work and for a number of years was Forest Supervisor in charge of one of the National Forests in the west. At present he is in private business in Colorado. Address: Green Mountain Falls, Colo.

Kupfer, Carl A. Entered government forestry work and was engaged in forest products work with the U. S. Forest Service. More recently was in charge of the branch of forest products with headquarters at San Francisco. At present he is California representative for the North Coast Dry Kiln Co. Address: 811 Santa Barbara Road, Berkeley, Calif.

1908

Baxter, W. F. After completing forestry work at the Iowa State College, Baxter took additional work at another institution. For a number of years he was employed in government forestry work. At present he is farming at Galva, Iowa.

Haeffner, H. E. Entered government forestry work soon after graduation and has continued in this work to the present time. Is now Forest Examiner of the Siskiyou National Forest in Oregon, Grant's Pass, Oregon.

1909

Allen, Shirley W. After graduation, Allen entered government forestry work in the west, was later transferred to the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin, where he worked several years. Later was made Forest Supervisor of the Angeles National Forest in California. He resigned this position to take a position with a lumber company and later was engaged in private business. At present he is Forester for the American Forestry Association at Washington, D. C.

New Forests For the Northwest

The illustration above shows one of the Long-Bell forestry enterprises in the Pacific Northwest—planting Douglas fir seedlings near Ryderwood, Washington.

This program contemplates re-seeding behind the loggers at a rate equal to the yearly cutting, thus assuring a perpetual timber supply for the Long-Bell mills at Longview, Washington.

The Long-Bell Lumber Company

R. A. Long Bldg.

Lumbermen Since 1875

Kansas City, Mo.

McCullough, Thomas E. Received his master's degree from Yale in 1911. At present he is District Agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company and is located at Flagstaff, Arizona.

1911

Barrett, Robert L. After graduation Barrett was employed as manager of a large orchard company with headquarters at Koshkonong, Missouri. At present he is District Horticultural Agent, Missouri College of Agriculture, located at Monett, Missouri. Barrett received his master's degree from the University of Missouri in 1924.

Whitham, J. C. On finishing college, Whitham took the Civil Service examination for government forestry work, entered government employ at once and has been in continuous government service since that time. At present he is Supervisor of the Kaniksu National Forest with headquarters at Newport, Wash.

Freeman, F. G. Engaged in fruit business at Santa Ana, California.

Hoffman, A. F. C. Entered government forestry work upon graduation. In a few years worked up to the position of Forest Supervisor and at present is Supervisor of the Montezuma National Forest in Colorado, which comprises an area of approximately one million acres. Address: Mancos, Colo.

Parke, L. S. For one and one-half years after graduation was Agricultural Inspector for the U. S. Reclamation Service, Phoenix, Arizona. For five and one-half years State director of club work, University of Arizona, for two years instructor in Vocational Agriculture at Beseon and Chandler, Arizona. He is located at the latter place at this time.

Smith, P. T. On leaving college he entered government forestry work and for a number of years was employed on the Black Hills National Forest in South Dakota. At this place he worked up to the position of Deputy Forest Supervisor, but later accepted a position as county agent in South Dakota, which position he now holds. Address, Redfield, S. D.

Reynoldson, L. A. Soon after graduation he accepted a position with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This work was continued for several years. Present position is not known.

1912

Lessel, L. R. Entered forestry work in the employ of the government at once upon graduation. Was Forest Examiner located on the Sitgreaves National Forest for the

SEND

FILSON CATALOG

It will tell you all about Filson Better Outdoor Clothes—and it's free for the asking.

For your own comfort, convenience and protection you ought to know all about the Filson Khaki Cruising Coat, Filson Mackinaw Coat, Filson Laced Breeches, Filson Hunting Coat and Filson Sleeping Bag. They are made to meet the demands of the outdoors man and have no superiors at any price.

The Filson Cruising Coat, shown here, is made of waterproof khaki, double over shoulders and sleeves, with ample pocket room. The whole back is a pocket (30x21) and forms a complete pack. And the price is only $6.50. The lighter coat sells for $5.50, but is not double. Order 1 inch larger than white collar measure. You'll find this a dandy all-weather coat and chock full of comfort and convenience.

C. C. FILSON CO.

1005-7 First Ave.

Seattle, Wash.

"FILSON CLOTHES FOR THE MAN WHO KNOWS"

at Holbrook, Arizona, for some time. At present he is deputy Forest Supervisor on the same forest.

O'Banion, A. C. For a number of years after finishing the Forestry course, he taught in a high school in Minnesota. At present he is County Agent at Park Rapids, Minnesota.

Olmsted, R. A. At present he is in charge of a prune and walnut ranch at Dundee, Oregon.

Richmond, H. M. Entered government employ upon graduation on the Minnesota National Forest. Later transferred to the Arapaho National Forest in Colorado as Forest Examiner. At present he is in private business at Cass Lake, Minnesota.

Smith, W. A. Accepted a position in government forestry work on finishing college. He continued in government work for several years, but at present he is in private work.

Truax, T. R. After finishing the Forestry course, was employed as Instructor and Assistant Professor for a number of years in the Forestry Department at Iowa State College. At the entrance of the United States into the war, he accepted a temporary assignment at the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin, where he has remained since that time. He is now engaged in investigation work with that laboratory.

1913

Baxter, L. J. On graduation he did not take up professional forestry work. At present he is on a large farm at Galva, Iowa, where he has assisted our Extension Forester in putting on demonstrations for the farmers of his locality.

Clark, H. B. Mr. Clark did not enter professional Forestry work on graduation. For several years was connected with an insurance company at Sioux City, Iowa. At present he is President and Manager of the Sioux-White Motor Company of that place.

Hensel, R. L. On leaving college, Mr. Hensel accepted a government position, connected with range management on the national forests. He continued in this government work for a number of years and later accepted a position as Professor of Range Management at the Kansas Agricultural College at Manhattan.

Ringheim, H. L. On leaving college, Mr. Ringheim accepted a position with a lumber company in Saskatchewan, Canada, where he has been employed since that time. At present he is Traveling Superintendent of the Monarch Lumber Company at Elrose, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Steffen, E. H. Entered government forestry work im-

We Are Always In The Market for Walnut Logs

We Pay Cash and Promise
You an excellent return
For Your Walnut
Timber

Write for Information

Des Moines Sawmill Co.
DES MOINES, IOWA

mediately after graduation. Spent several years on grazing investigations on national forests in the northwestern part of the country. Since about 1919 has been head of the Department of Forestry, State College of Washington, at Pullman, Washington.

Watts, L. F. Entered government forestry work in the west after finishing the Forestry course. Has continued in the employ of the U. S. Forest Service since that time. At present is Forest Supervisor in charge of the Idaho National Forest of about one million acres, located at McCall, Idaho.

1914

Hassel, W. C. Employed in government forestry work in Minnesota and the west for a number of years after graduation. At present he is Superintendent of Schools at Salem, Iowa.

Hayes, R. W. Soon after graduation Hayes accepted a forestry position with the U. S. Indian Service. For a number of years he was Forest Supervisor in the Service. Later was with a lumber company for a short time, but left this work to become Logging Engineer at large for the Indian Service in the southwest, with headquarters at Albuquerque, New Mexico. At present he is Assistant Professor of Forestry at the Colorado Agricultural College, Ft. Collins, Colo.

Nagel, W. M. Entered government work at Missoula, Montana, on graduation. Was engaged in reforestation work for several years. Later assigned to Bitter Root National Forest. At present he is Supervisor on the Missoula National Forest with headquarters at Missoula, Mont.

Schreck, R. G. Passed the Civil Service examination for the U. S. Forestry Service upon graduation. Spent several years as Forest Assistant and Examiner on the Superior National Forest in northern Minnesota. Since about 1918 he has been Forest Supervisor on the Michigan National Forest at East Tawas, Michigan.

Sterrett, J. C. Entered the lumber business when he finished school. It is understood that he has been in lumbering and house building since that time.

Van Boskirk, S. S. Accepted a government position upon finishing the Forestry course. Was engaged in National Forest work in the southwest for several years. Later was assigned to one of the Forest Experiment Stations in Utah. At present is Deputy Forest Supervisor of the Manti National Forest, with headquarters at Ephraim, Utah.

Wolven, R. M. Did not enter professional forestry work when he finished college, but went into private business and it is thought is now located in California. Newport Road, Santa Ana, Calif.

Wolf, E. T. Entered employment of the U. S. Forest Service on completion of Forestry course. For several years was engaged in timber reconnaissance work in District 1 of the Forest Service in Colorado. At present is Deputy Forest Supervisor of the Lolo National Forest at Missoula, Mont.

1915

Bode, I. T. For several years after graduation was in charge of the Kansas State Forest Nursery at Hays, Kansas. Later, was employed as Instructor in the Forestry Department of Iowa State College, which position he held until he was transferred to the position of Extension Associate Professor of Forestry. He is now engaged in developing the forestry work among the farmers of Iowa.

Hansel, H. E. Mr. Hansel did not undertake professional forestry work upon graduation, but accepted a position in the county engineer's office at Bloomfield, Iowa. At present he is County Engineer and also Consulting Drainage Engineer at that place.

Harley, Wm. P. Soon after graduation Harley accepted a forestry position with the U. S. Indian Service and was in the Service until October, 1925. At present he is in the retail lumber business at Albuquerque, New Mexico. Address: Box 454, Albuquerque, N. M.

Hicks, L. E. For several years Mr. Hicks was employed in Government Forestry work in the west, but resigned to take up private business at Detroit, Michigan, where he is engaged at the present time.

Smith, R. P. Undertook teaching work upon finishing college and is engaged in this work so far as is known at the present time.

1916

Cassidy, H. O. Entered the work of the U. S. Forest Service upon graduation. Has specialized in grazing investigation work in the Southwest. At present he is Grazing Examiner on the Santa Fe National Forest, with headquarters at Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Cornell, H. H. After finishing the Forestry course at Iowa State College, Mr. Cornell took graduate work in Landscape Architecture at Harvard University, after which he returned to Iowa State College as Landscape Extension Specialist for the Landscape Architecture Department. He continued in this position until Feb. 1, 1924. At present he is engaged in private landscape architecture work.

Geisler, Max. Was engaged in investigation work with the U. S. Forest Service until the United States became involved in the war and due to the fact that he did not have his final citizen's papers, found it necessary to leave the government service. At present he is President and Manager of an auto tire company in Chicago. Address: 2216 So. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Jones, G. C. Jones did not enter professional forestry work upon graduation, but accepted a position with an insurance company and is engaged in that work, so far as is known, at this time. Address: 715 Hippee Building, Des Moines, Iowa.

Quint, H. J. After leaving Iowa State College, he accepted a position with a lumber company on tie inspection work. Last report indicates that he is still in the employ of a lumber company.

Plagge, H. H. After graduation took up Pomology work and at present is employed as Assistant in Pomology in the Horticulture Section at Iowa State College.

Plagge, N. C. Entered private business upon graduation. He is located at Barrington, Illinois.

McCarthy, C. C. At present in private work, located at Ames, Iowa.

Rumbaugh, W. R. After graduation was employed with the Davey Tree Surgery Company, later with the P. S. Phelps Tree Surgery Company, later was connected with the F. A. Robinson Landscape Company at Des Moines, Iowa, and resigned this position to take employment with the Everett Nursery Company of Chicago. At present he is looking after farming interests at Collins, Iowa.

Stokes, R. R. Took a position with a lumber company at Couer d'Alene, Idaho. At present Woods Foreman for the Edward Rutledge Timber Company at Couer d'Alene, Idaho.

1917

Hartman, G. B. After returning from service in France, Mr. Hartman was employed with the Long-Bell Lumber Company of DeRidder, Louisiana. At present he is Plant Superintendent for that company at the same location.

Henry, Allen S. For several years after graduation was in charge of the Pole and Timber Preservation Work of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company, with district headquarters at Omaha, Nebraska. Recently resigned this position to go into private business. Address: 419 6th St., Sioux City, Iowa.

Veach, C. H. After graduation he was engaged in landscape architecture work in Iowa. At present he is teaching in a high school at Park River, N. D.

The
North-Eastern Forestry
Company
EVERGREENS

For Forest Planting

Choice Ornementals

Tree Seeds

Office and Nurseries
CHESIRE, CONN.

Seed House
WILLSBORO, N. Y.

To Forestry Service Men

If you wish genuine Navajo Blankets, send us the approximate sizes and the amount you wish to pay. We will send any number on approval.

All shipments are made C. O. D., but blankets may be returned in same manner if they do not meet with purchaser's approval.

H. S. FARLEY

Sales Agent for
United Cigar Stores Company
Albuquerque, New Mexico

1918

Davis, E. M. For a short period after graduation was employed as an Inspector and Foreman of a creosoting plant of Eppinger and Russell Company. Later was employed as Tie Inspector for the Erie Railroad in the East. For a short period by the Thomas A. Edison Company as an inspector and later accepted a position with the Long-Bell Lumber Company in Louisiana. At present he is employed at the U. S. Forest Products Laboratory, Madison, Wisconsin, as Assistant Wood Technologist in the Section of Industrial Investigations. Received M. F. degree from Iowa State College in June, 1925.

Hadlock, F. D. On leaving Iowa State College, Hadlock was employed as a tie buyer for the Western Tie and Timber Company. Later resigned to accept a position as Development Engineer of the Western Electric Company, where he now has charge of the dry kiln operations of that company. Took M. F. degree in June, 1923. Address: 4748 N. Springfield Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Rehmann, T. W. Mr. Rehmann did not enter professional forestry work when finishing college. He is at present located at Des Moines, Iowa, in the Real Estate and House Building business. Address: 431 Flynn Bldg., Des Moines, Iowa.

1919

Poshusta, D. C. At present he is employed with the Long-Bell Lumber Company at Shreveport, Louisiana.

1920

Deming, Milo H. On graduation Mr. Deming was appointed as Grazing Assistant of the United States Forest Service. At present he is Assistant Range Examiner at the District Office of the Forest Service at Ogden, Utah.

Fletcher, R. A. Accepted a position with the U. S. Forest Service in northern Idaho and later resigned to take a position with a forest products company of the same state. At present he is employed by the Hammond Lumber Company at Samoa, California.

Hoyer, V. B. After finishing his college course he was engaged in the retail lumber business at Ida Grove, Iowa. Later he accepted a teaching and coaching position in the high school at Roseau, Minnesota. At present he is principal of the high school at Battle Creek, Iowa.

Moorhead, John W. Entered the lumber business after finishing college. At present employed with a lumber company in California.

Growers of Choice Stock

Evergreens

A Specialty

Established 1855

The D. Hill Nursery Co., Inc.

Evergreen Specialists

Largest Growers in America

DUNDEE,

-

-

-

ILLINOIS

== In ==

National Moistat Kilns

Moisture Travels Away
From Heat

Let us tell you how this effects the drying of a board at the center.

THE NATIONAL
DRY KILN COMPANY

1150 East Maryland Street,

Indianapolis

Indiana

Morrell, F. W. (Granted the Professional Degree, Master of Forestry.) At present District Forester, District No. 1, Missoula, Montana.

Wall, L. A. After finishing the Forestry course was employed as Grazing Assistant in the West; later returned to Iowa State College to complete work for a Master's Degree. At present located in the District Forester's office at Ogden, Utah, in the capacity of Assistant Range Examiner for that district.

Loy, E. C. After graduation he entered teaching work for a time. He is now employed as Draftsman in the City Engineer's Office at Omaha, Nebr. Loy passed the Civil Service examination and is now waiting for an appointment. Address: 4516 N. 39th St., Omaha, Nebr.

1921

Avery, N. A. Entered U. S. Forest Service at the completion of his college course. At present employed in government work in the Colorado-Wyoming-South Dakota region.

Cormany, C. P. For a time employed as salesman for Weyerhaeuser Lumber Company of Chicago. Later he was Assistant to the District Manager of that Company. At present he is Sales Manager and Buyer for the Frank Porter Lumber Company of Chicago. Address: 1814 N. Central Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Fisk, V. C. For one or two years after graduation was employed by the State Forester of Illinois on investigation work. He was later engaged in the lumber business at Pectonca, Ill. At present he is instructor in the Botany Department at Iowa State College.

Helm, H. J. Since graduation has been employed in the U. S. Forest Service as Assistant Grazing Examiner. At present he is located at District Headquarters at Ogden, Utah.

Ling, Wen Ming. After completing an additional year at Iowa State College he accepted the position as Superintendent of the Industrial Mission at Pagoda Anchorage, Foochow, China. At present he is Professor of Forestry at Canton University, Canton, China.

Patrick, O. K. Was employed by the Long-Bell Lumber Company after graduation. At present in charge of creosoting work at one of the Long-Bell Lumber Company's plants in Louisiana. Address: DeRidder, La.

Munson, H. F. After graduation was employed as Superintendent of a creosoting plant in the east. Later employed in Washington State by the Weyerhaeuser Lumber

Cranford Coffee Shop

2408 Lincoln Way

When you want food that is Better
Try our
Table De Hote and Ala Carte Service

Private Room for Banquets and Parties.

Telephone 1545-W

Varsity Ballroom

The
Amusement Center
of the Campus
Approved Dances
Every
Friday and Saturday

Company. Was employed for a time as Assistant Professor of Forestry at the Agricultural College, State College, Texas. At present he is Assistant in the Division of Forest Protection, State Forestry Department, with headquarters at Lufkin, Texas.

1922

Eggers, W. C. Has been employed with the Long-Bell Lumber Company at Shreveport, La., since graduation. At present is Superintendent of one of the creosoting plants of that company.

Fennel, Robert E. After graduation accepted a Graduate Fellowship in the Botany Department at Iowa State College. At present he is working at the Ohio Experiment Station.

Moravets, A. J. Accepted a position in government forestry work on completion of college course. At present is located at the District Headquarters at Portland, Ore.

Morris, R. D. After graduation Morris entered grazing work in the U. S. Forest Service. At present he is Chief of Party, Grazing Reconnaissance in District 3, with headquarters at Albuquerque, N. M.

Pohle, E. W. After graduation Pohle accepted a Fellowship in the Forestry Department of the University of California. At present he is working for the Mendicino Lumber Company in their head office at San Francisco, Calif.

1923

Bogan, A. J. After completing his college course in Forestry, Bogan accepted a position with the Des Moines Sawmill Co. at Des Moines, Iowa, where he is located at the present time.

Dunn, Paul M. Dunn accepted a teaching Fellowship in the Forestry Department at Iowa State College immediately after graduation. At present he is editor of a newspaper at Newton, Iowa.

Trenk, Fred B. Accepted a position as Graduate Assistant in the Botany Department of Iowa State College immediately after graduation. At present he is Assistant State Forester of Maryland.

Watkins, E. W. Accepted a Research Fellowship in the Forestry Department of Iowa State College immediately after graduation. When last heard of, he was in Los Angeles, Calif.

Prout, C. W. Prout completed his college work in December, 1923, and accepted a position with boys' work in Chicago. Later he was employed with a steel corporation at

See us before you buy your boots—as we give special club prices on two of the most standard lines—"Lion Brand" and "The Russel Pacs".

TRUEBLOOD'S SHOE STORE

East of Bank

Campustown

Ames National Bank

Ames Trust and Savings Bank

"The Bank Where You Feel at Home"

Q U A D E

High Class Photography

Edison Phonographs and Records

We have served the students and faculty of Iowa
State College for 28 years.

417 Main

A New Ankle-Neatness

It is the famous ankle-fashioned feature, quite as much as their acknowledges styles, excellence of materials and craftsmanship, that commend Nunn-Bush oxfords to well-dressed men.

Brannberg & Hubbard

West of Sheldon-Munn

Virginia, Minn. At present he is District Forester, Minnesota State Forest Service, with headquarters at Eveleth, Minn. His work consists of forest planting, reconnaissance and educational work.

1924

Martin, C. W. Martin received his Master's Degree in June, 1925. He accepted a position in the University of Maine, Orono, Maine, as instructor in Botany and Entomology. "Chet" was married shortly after graduation exercises in June.

Miller, Allan F. After graduation Miller was appointed Junior Forester on the Shoshone National Forest at Cody, Wyoming. At present he is Junior Forester on the Medicine Bow National Forest, Laramie, Wyo. Address: Box 634, Laramie, Wyo.

Lough, Wm. E. At present Lough is employed with the Sun Lumber Company at Ventura, Calif. Lough seems to be well pleased with his work and anticipates a good future. Address: 818 Meta St., Ventura, Calif.

Rutter, Frank. After graduation Rutter accepted a position with the Frank Porter Lumber Company, Chicago, Ill.

1925

Nelson, DeWitt. Entered the U. S. F. S. shortly after graduation. At present is in the Supervisor's office on the Tahoe National Forest in California doing "anything and everything." In answer to the question, "Married?" Swede states, "Not yet." "When?" "As soon as possible."

Correll, Lynne M. Correll accepted a Teaching Fellowship in the Forestry Department of Iowa State College immediately after graduation.

Towne, Chas. A. After graduation Towne entered the U. S. F. S. and is at present a ranger on the Medicine Bow National Forest, Laramie, Wyo.

Howell, Joseph E. Howell is at present employed at Placerville, California, where he has charge of the establishment of a nursery for some investigative work.

Durell, Glenn. Durell entered the United States Forest Service shortly after graduation and is now District Ranger on the Arkansas National Forest, Arkansas.