

STUDENT NEWS

Featured Student

George E. Schoel VM 3 recently assumed the duties of President of the Junior Chapter of the A.V.M.A., the office to which he was elected May 19, 1949.

A native of Iowa, he was born in Waterloo, June 21, 1923. He attended elementary school there and graduated from West Waterloo High School in 1941. George, an accomplished athlete, won letters in football, basketball and track while in High School, and played in the all star East-West high school football game in 1941. He played football for Iowa State College in 1942 and 1946 and was a member of the track team in 1946 and 1947.

He was a student at Iowa State College in 1941 and had completed a year and a half of schooling before entering the Armed Forces. He spent three years as a bomber pilot serving in the Italian Theater. Upon his discharge from the service he returned to Iowa State College and resumed his studies toward a degree in Veterinary Medicine.

+ +

JR. A.V.M.A.

Through the efforts of John Watkins VM3, chairman of the speakers committee, this quarter's meetings of the Jr. A.V.M.A. have been very interesting and educational.

Dr. Christian Petersen gave a very interesting talk and demonstration at the Jan. 18, 1950 meeting, on art and sculpturing.

On March 8, 1950, Dr. S. F. Scheidy, Veterinary Research Director for Sharp and Dohme, presented a paper at our regular meeting on "New Trends in Veterinary Therapy."

Wednesday, March 29, 1950, Mr. M. O. Cullen, Director of the Department of Meat Merchandising of the National Livestock and Meat Board, gave a talk and meat cutting demonstration. Members of the Block and Bridle Club were guests for this program.

The guest speaker for April 12, 1950, meeting was Dr. H. U. Garrett, Chief of the Iowa State Division of Animal Industry. Dr. Garrett spoke on the relations and obligations of the practicing veterinarian to the Division of Animal Industry and the ways in which that office can aid the veterinarian.

At the Feb. 16th meeting of the Jr. A.V.M.A., Dr. Margaret Sloss of the Department of Pathology and president of the local chapter of the Phi Zeta Honorary Fraternity, introduced the members of the Junior and Senior classes who were selected for that organization. The seniors were D. Albrecht, S. Anderson, L. Bates, R. Cowles, W. Campbell, R. Hacecky, J. Killian, J. Melcher, M. Pool, R. Severson, T. Weatherly, R. Winterfield, R. Zenor. The juniors were C. Bregman, D. Briley, D. Brinkmeyer, F. Densmore, M. Montag, R. Searl, J. Stream.

Also at this meeting was the presentation of keys to Alan Raun, Editor-elect, Roland Bunge, Business manager-elect and to Arthur Dobson and Robert Zenor for outstanding work on the Iowa State College Veterinarian. The keys were presented by Dr. George Fowler, Head of the Department of Surgery and faculty advisor of the magazine.

The final meeting of the year on May 17, 1950, Dr. D. A. Smith of the Department of Medicine and faculty advisor to the Jr. A.V.M.A. introduced the winners for this college of the Moss Essay contest. They were J. Cowles, first place and winner of a $15.00 prize, K. Giese, second place and winner of a $10.00 prize and R. Searle winner of third place and $5.00. In addition to the Moss Essay winners, Dr. Smith introduced R. T. Speaker, L. C. Allenstein and D. M. Anderson all of the Senior class as new members of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

+ +

MARRIAGES

Mr. Dale W. Clausen VM 3 of Dexter, Iowa to Miss Della E. Eickelberg, '49, Janesville, Iowa in Memorial Lutheran Church at Ames, Iowa on March 17, 1950. Mrs. Clausen graduated in the field of Home Economics Education.

GENERAL

Cyrus J. Starch, VM1 was called to South Beloit, Wisconsin by the death of his brother, Dr. Paul F. Starch '45, who was a victim of a fatal auto accident Feb. 28, 1950. Dr. Starch lost control of his automobile on an ice covered road and crashed into a culvert railing a short distance from South Beloit while making a call. Dr. Starch maintained a successful practice and small animal hospital at South Beloit, besides a considerable practice in the vicinity of La Crosse, Wisconsin.

+ +

BIRTHS

A daughter, Teri Michele, to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore, on March 8, 1950. Mr. Moore is a member of the senior class.

A daughter, Deborah Ruth, to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Misner, at Mary Greeley Hospital, Ames, Iowa, March 28, 1950. Mr. Misner is a VM 4.

A daughter, Ann Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Speaker, at Mary Greeley Hospital, Ames, Iowa, March 5, 1950. Mr. Speaker is a VM 4.

A daughter, Christy Ann, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Rubel, at Methodist Hospital, Sioux City, Iowa, March 30, 1950. Mr. Rubel is a VM 1.

There appears to be no worthwhile advantage in feeding vitamin concentrates to calves from cows on a good feeding program. On a poor feeding program there would probably be some advantage from doing so.

NOTICE: On the back of this issue will be found a colored bar. This indicates that the issue contains an annual index listing the articles of all three issues of the volume.