
ALUMNI NEWS

Class of '50

In this Winter issue we are featuring the graduates of the class of 1950.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Ahrens are located at Jewell, Iowa where he is in partnership with Dr. C. L. Nelson. The Ahrens have six children. He has been a member of the town council for four years.

Dr. and Mrs. Duane Albrecht live in Denver, Colorado where he has had a small animal clinic for eight years. The couple have two sons and a daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald M. Anderson are located at Bedford, Iowa where he has a large animal practice. The Andersons have one daughter. He has been active on the fair and school boards.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bates are located in Union, Iowa where he has primarily a large animal practice. They have two daughters and one son. Dr. Bates has been active in the American Legion, an organization in which he served as commander and adjutant. He has also served on the school board for six years.

Dr. and Mrs. Leroy Bell are located in Davenport, Iowa where he is engaged in a mixed practice. Plans for a new hospital are slated within the next two years. The couple have three sons and one daughter. He is active in church affairs and is secretary of District 15 of the IVMA. He reported that one of the Ringling Brother's Circus bareback horses was one of his patients during the past year.

Dr. and Mrs. Leland Bunge are located at Estherville, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. The couple have three sons and one daughter. He is president of the Rotary Club, a member of the Chamber of Commerce and on the YMCA Board.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Cahalan are located at Logansport, Indiana where he is engaged in a mixed practice. A small animal hospital was completed in 1956. The couple have two daughters and one son. He is a past president of the Northwest Indiana VMA. They formerly lived in Wisconsin where he was engaged in government regulatory work before coming to Indiana.

Dr. and Mrs. Herschel Chudomelka are located in Ozark, Missouri where he is engaged in a general practice. He has a seven room clinic with facilities for both large and small animals which was completed in 1957. He is active in the Lions and Ozark Booster Clubs. He is currently serving as president of the South West Veterinary Medical Association of Missouri. They have two daughters and one son.

Dr. and Mrs. Forrest Clark are located at Indianola, Iowa where he is engaged in commercial work for Diamond Laboratories in Des Moines. The couple have three daughters and one son. Dr. Clark was in a general practice in Ogden, Iowa from 1951 to 1957.

Dr. and Mrs. Rollin James Cowles are located in Burlington, Iowa where he has a general practice emphasizing small animals and public health. The couple has three sons and three daughters. He is active in scout work, County Board of Health, Isaac Walton League Conservation groups, and school board of which he has served as president.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Crawford are located in Pella, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. A new hospital is in the planning stage and should be done within two years. The couple has a son and a daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dappen are located in Manning, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. They have two sons. He is chairman of the legislative committee for the Iowa Veterinary Medical Association.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Dobson are located in Sedalia, Missouri where he is with the USDA in the Agricultural Marketing Service Division. He was in practice in Knoxville and Van Horne, Iowa from 1950 to '52 and 1952 to '60 respectively. They have one daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. John Edenburn are located in Dell Rapids, South Dakota where he is engaged in a general practice. Formerly he was in practice in Wayne, Nebraska and in Coleman, South Dakota. He is a breeder of Polled Hereford cattle, active in his local church, a member of the Masons, active in political groups and in the 4-H organizations. The couple has two daughters and one son.

Dr. and Mrs. Roger Feldman are located in Austin, Minn. where he is a meat inspector. Formerly he was in general practice in Wapello, Kalona, Ida Grove and Muscatine, all in Iowa. They have two daughters. He is a lay speaker in his church and a member of the Austin Male Chorus.

Dr. and Mrs. Darwin Gubser are located in Earlham, Iowa where he is engaged in a mixed practice. He has been active in school affairs, Lions Club and the Saddle Club. He was one of the organizers of the Tri-County VA. He and his two daughters maintain and show registered Quarter horses.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Gubser are located in Adel, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. They have two daughters and one son. He is active in the Masonic Lodge, church, Community Chest, School Board, Boy Scouts, and Rotary Club. He is also on the Executive Board of the IVMA.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Hall are located in Madison, Wisconsin where he is a laboratory supervisor for Central Animal Diagnostic Laboratory, Wisconsin Dept. of Agriculture. He was formerly in practice in Albany, Missouri. The couple has two sons and one daughter. He is active in the Masonic Lodge, church affairs, served as secretary of the Dane County VMA.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Herrmann are located in Sibley, Iowa where he is engaged in a mixed practice. He completed a hospital in 1953. The couple has a son and a daughter. He is currently president of the Kiwanis Club.

Dr. and Mrs. James M. Hollen are located in Winterset, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. The couple has two sons and two daughters.

Dr. and Mrs. Spencer G. Hull are living in What Cheer, Iowa where he is engaged in a large animal practice. They have two sons.

Dr. and Mrs. John G. Kilian are located in Corvallis, Oregon where he is a poultry pathologist for the Veterinary Diagnostic Laboratory at Oregon State College. The couple are the parents of two girls and two boys. Dr. Kilian has been president of the PTA. He was previously located in Stacyville, Iowa and Osage, Iowa before moving to Oregon.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry E. Koeppen are located in Bloomington, Indiana where he is engaged in a small animal practice. They have one daughter. Prior to Bloomington Dr. Koeppen lived in Richmond and in Lafayette.

Dr. and Mrs. John P. Lannan are living in Columbus, Nebraska where he is engaged in a general practice. He has a large and small animal hospital. The couple has three daughters and two sons. Dr. Lannan has been active as the city veterinarian, a member of the Board of Health, member of St. Mary's Hospital Advisory Board, and past director of Wayside Country Club. In his spare time he raises Ponies of America and Appaloosa horses.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Macheak are located in Bozeman, Montana where he is connected with the USDA; ARS; AIQ;

Biological Products Sections. Dr. Macheak is carrying on experimental work with anaerobic organisms under the direction of Dr. L. D. Smith, Montana State College. The Macheak's have two boys and two girls. They were previously located in Fort Dodge, Iowa; Okmulgee, Oklahoma; and Kansas City, Kansas.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald V. Peacock are located in Silver Springs, Md. where he is chief staff officer for Biological Products and Licensing for the Agricultural Research Service and Animal Inspection and Quarantine Division in Washington, D. C. The couple has one son and two daughters. They were previously located in Sioux City, Iowa; Berkeley, California; and Omaha, Nebraska.

Dr. and Mrs. Max G. Pool are located in Mount Ayr, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice which is principally large animal. They have two daughters. He has been a trustee of his church and a member of the Masons. The Pools were previously located in York, Nebraska.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert J. Potter are located in Storm Lake, Iowa where he is practicing large animal medicine. They have one girl and one boy.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth H. Randolph are located in Lost Nation, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. There are plans for a clinic in the future. The couple has three girls. Dr. Randolph has been a councilman and a director of Community Club. He has also been a member of Boosters Club, American Legion, Masonic Lodge Consistory and Shrine. He has also been an Executive Board Member of IVMA, Pres. District 15 of IVMA, and President of East Central Iowa VMA.

Dr. and Mrs. Anthony W. Riejsma are located with the U. S. Army in Korea. They have two daughters.

Dr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Severson are located in Le Mars, Iowa where he is in partnership with Dr. Wayne Faber in a general practice. The couple has two daughters and one son. Dr. Severson was previously located in Storm Lake, Iowa; and Moorhead, Iowa.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert T. Speaker are living in Keota, Iowa where he is in partnership with Dr. R. A. Carmichael in a large animal practice. The couple have three daughters and one son.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles M. Towers are located in Wyoming, Iowa where he has a general practice. They have five sons. Dr. Towers has been active in the town council, Lions Club, and is a Little League Baseball coach.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Urbatsch are located in Albert Lea, Minnesota where he is in a mixed practice including a small animal hospital. He is associated with Dr. W. Lawson, and Dr. C. Farhe. The couple has two boys and two girls. Dr. Urbatsch has been active on the church finance board and as an assistant layleader of his church.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold E. Weimer are located in Riverside, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. They have four sons and one daughter.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard L. Winegarden are located in Waterloo, Iowa where he is engaged in a general practice. They have just completed the building of a new veterinary hospital in Waterloo. The couple has four boys. Dr. Winegarden has been active as a Captain in the U.S. Air Force Reserves and in Rotary International.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert S. Zenor are located in Westminster, Colorado where he is a Federal Veterinarian in Animal Disease Eradication Division. Dr. Zenor is planning to transfer to the Sioux City Stockyards in January of 1961. The couple has one daughter. They were previously located in Mexico, Sioux City, Iowa and Denver, Colorado.

Alumni Visit Europe

Four Iowa State University graduates were among a group of 23 veterinarians and their wives who recently visited five veterinary schools in Europe. There are Dr. & Mrs. Donald V. Benson, Fayette, Mo., (Class 1945), Dr. & Mrs. C. J. Starch of Des Moines (1953 class), Dr. & Mrs. Dale E. Briley of Des Moines (1951 class) and Dr. & Mrs. D. O. Faulkner of Des Moines (1953 class). The three week trip was organized by Research Laboratories, Inc., St. Joseph, Missouri.