

Alumni News

Class of 1931

Lloyd D. Jones received a Master's Degree in Pathology in 1955. He was at the American College of Laboratory Animal Medicine. He was with the State Department in Vietnam in 1971-1973. Dr. Jones has three children and is currently doing some consultation work.

Carl Olson is currently translating "History of Veterinary Medicine" from French, to be published by the National Agriculture Library. He has had research and academic faculty status at the New York State Veterinary College, University of Massachusetts, University of Nebraska, and the University of Miami. Dr. Olson received the Distinguished Achievement Citation from the ISU Alumni Association in June, 1983. He has four children and eight grandchildren.

Ernest F. Waller is now retired but has worked in the area of Veterinary Diagnostics at the University of Minnesota, Iowa State, New Hampshire, University of Vermont, University of Delaware (Department Head), Sterling Drug, and the Georgia Poultry Lab. Dr. Waller and his wife, Helen, live in Tifton, Georgia and have two daughters, Leora Ann Steinbach and Mary Helen Field.

Class of 1941

Collins W. Anderson retired from practice in 1976. He was in small animal practice in Milwaukee from 1946 to 1976. He was in World War II from December, 1942 to January, 1946. Dr. Anderson and his wife, Jean, live in Mexico, Missouri and have two children, Ronald and Kathy.

John P. Arnold is retired. He was in large animal practice from 1941-1946 and 1948-1950. He received his M.S. from ISU in 1948. Dr. Arnold spent 1950-1976 at the College of Veterinary Medicine, Minnesota where he was professor, Department Head, and received his PhD. He is past president of the MVMA, Veterinary Medical Academy, and Minnesota Territorial Pioneers. Dr. Arnold and his wife, Margaret, have two children, Phillip and Mary. They live in White Bear Lake, Minnesota.

Dale D. Ball is retired from practice. He is a member of the IVMA and AVMA. He and his wife, Eleanor, live in Dewitt, Iowa. They have four daughters: Marilyn, Marjorie, Virginia and Sarah.

Melvin R. Beemer is retired from large animal practice and living in Corning, Iowa. He is a member of the Southwest IVA, IVMA, and AVMA. He and his wife, Marney Scott, have five children: Barbara, Lynne, Gayle, Scott, and Polly.

G. W. Cornwell is retired from a mixed practice of thirty years. He and his wife, Phyllis, live in Boone, Iowa. Dr. Cornwell is a life member of the IVMA and AVMA.

Lawrence M. Forland retired in 1986 from forty five years of mixed practice in Northwood, Iowa. His partner was Dr. Stila Anderson (ISU '43). He and his wife, Valborg, have four children: Barbara, LaVonne, Steven, and Chris. Dr. Forland has held offices of the Upper Iowa VMA, was Executive Board Member of IVMA District #3, AVMA Honor Roll Member, Northwood School Board (six years), Lutheran Church, Mason, and Shrine member.

Arvid H. Gaffin is retired from mixed practice. He is a past member of ILVMA, Central ILVMA (past president), MOVMA, CAVMA, and CalPenn VMA. He is a present honor roll member of the AVMA. He served four years in the Army Vet Corps during WWII. He ran the Flying W Ranch in Missouri for a number of years. He is past president of the Northern California VMA Golfing Association. Dr. Gaffin and his wife, Helen, live in Saint Helena, California and have three children.

Charles D. Hertich is retired. He was in general practice in Chester, Illinois from 1941 to 1959 and was with the Illinois Department of Agriculture from 1959 to 1984. Dr. Hertich and his wife, Florence, have six children.

Raymond J. Helvig is retired from practice. He was in private practice in 1941 in Iowa and in the United States public health service from 1941 to 1976. He received his M.P.H. in 1948 from the University of Michigan. Dr. Helvig has also received the U.S. P.H.S. Commendation Medal and ISU Stange Award. He is active in community activities. Dr. Helvig and his wife, Elizabeth, live in Baltimore, Maryland and have five children and eight grandchildren.

Harlan E. Jensen is retired. He worked in mixed animal practice from 1941-1946 and small animal practice (specialty in ophthalmology) from 1946-67. He taught at the University of Missouri from 1967-1980. Dr. Jensen has consulted with pharmaceutical companies and veterinary hospitals (1967-1985). He has lectured in almost every state and several foreign countries and has been program chairman for the AVMA and AAHA conventions as well as several state and regional meetings. Dr. Jensen built the first sound proof animal hospital and designed and patented the Jensen Ear Trimmer, as well as publishing several books. He is also involved with many other organizations. Dr. Jensen and his wife, Naomi, live in Fort Myers, Florida and they have three children.

Robert W. Lindenstruth is retired in San Antonio, Texas. He was active in veterinary medicine from 1941 to 1950 and then was engaged in business until 1965. Dr. Lindenstruth and his wife, Opal, have one daughter, Jean.

S. D. Linn is retired from practice. He is past president of the IVMA and the American Association of Veterinary State Board Examiners, past chairman of the Iowa Veterinary Examining Board, past member of AVMA Council on Veterinary Services. He has received the IVMA Presidential Award and Storeg Award. He also was a bank director for twenty years. Dr. Linn and his wife, Erma, live in Humboldt, Iowa and have five children.

Calvin D. Sours retired from large animal practice in 1982. He practiced in Brooklyn, Iowa from 1941-43 with Dr. Roy Doppen (KS '20's), and in Nora Springs from 1943-1972, with part of 1943-46 being in the Army Veterinary Corps. Dr. Sours is a life member of the IVMA and AVMA and was past president of the Upper Iowa VMA, as well as many community activities. Dr. Sours and his wife, Carol, live in Mason City, Iowa and have two children.

Nathaniel R. Waggoner retired from practice in 1975. He is past president and secretary of the Eastern Iowa VMA, past president and secretary of the Missouri Valley VMA and life member of the IVMA, ILVMA, and AVMA. He and his wife, Glenda, live in Tremont, Illinois and have three sons.

Class of 1951

Barry O. Barnes is mostly retired in Ottumwa, Iowa, but continues to do relief and volunteer work. He has been active at the local hospice, the hands-on science museum, the Heifer Project International, and in the church in local, state and national mission boards. He has been to Central America three times as a volunteer veterinary missionary. In 1983 he received the Iowa Volunteer of the Year Award from the Iowa Professional Social Workers Association. In 1987 he received the Ecumenical Person Award from the Ottumwa Fellowship of Churches. In October of 1990 he represented the Heifer Project International in accepting a Presidential End Hunger Award in Washington, D.C. He and his wife, Carol, have four children: Lynn Ellen Isvik, Julie Kay Barnes, Jack ), and Ann Clime.

Dale E. Briley is semi-retired in a small animal practice near Des Moines. He is active in the Lions Club, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Greater Des Moines VHA. He and his wife, Phyllis Joanne, have six children: Jordan, Karen, Rhonda, Fred, Joan, and Jason.

James M. Brown is retired in Wisconsin from a career that included solo practice, mixed practice, and work on the clinical staff at Iowa State University and in the State Diagnostic Lab. He has held various veterinary and community offices. He and his wife, Neva, live in Barron, Wisconsin and have four children: Dave, Sue, Bill, and Dan.

Don Buchanan is active in a mixed animal practice in Grand Center, Iowa with his associate,

Dr. J. E. Stewart (ISU '79). He has served as chairman of the County Board of Health. He and his wife, Arlyne, have two sons, Tom and Gerald, who are both medical doctors and three daughters: Kathy, Jean, and Sue, who all have degrees in education.

John W. Budding is active in a large and small animal practice in Wilton, Iowa with his son Wayne F. Budding (ISU '81). He is active in the community club, the Methodist Church and the school board of Brighton, Iowa. He and his wife, Gwen, have two other children: Lynn Budding, DDS, and Susan Carrol, an executive secretary.

Roland C. Bunge retired in February of 1991 from the USDA-FSIS-MPI and lives in Nacogdoches, Texas. He was selected one of the "Nine Who Make a Difference" by KTRE-TV for his volunteer work. He and his wife Claire have three children: Allen, a dentist, Andrea, a registered nurse, and Rick in the USAF.

Dale Walter Clausen is retired in Denison, Iowa. He had a large animal practice for 21 years and then worked as a USDA meat inspector until 1988. He and his wife Mary Helen have eleven children: Steven, Mary Rebecca, David, Deborah, Greta Jane, Denise, Darlene, Blair, Christine, Christopher, and Martin.

Frank Densmore is retired from practice in Rockford, Illinois. He was the district governor of the Lion's Club in 1989-90. His former associates include Jim Collins (ISU '60), Rich Collins (ISU '70), and Bill Kuhfus (ISU '72). He and his wife Fay have four children: Tom, Sue, Bill and Amy.

James A. Downard is retired in Michigantown, Indiana. He was in private practice in Greenfield, Illinois until 1964, and was then a field veterinarian for USDA-APHIS until 1988. In APHIS, he was a brucellosis epidemiologist in Puerto Rico ('66-'69), assistant in charge in Kansas ('70-'71), Florida ('71-'75), and South Carolina ('75-'77), Chief Staff Veterinarian for Swine Diseases ('77-'79), Senior Staff Veterinarian for Swine and Poultry ('79-'84), and veterinarian in charge in Indiana ('84-'88). He and his wife, Mary, have three children: Marilyn Johnson, Ellen Reikowski and James A., Jr. His current interests include traveling, tree farming, and making maple syrup.

Donald R. Fields died on August 18, 1989.

Verle W. Foote is active in a large animal practice in Chariton, Iowa. He is also active in the First United Methodist Church. He and his wife Louise have four sons, Alan, Robert, David and Doug, and a daughter, Anita.

Carl E. Jacobsen has retired from practice and lives in Shingle Spring, California. He practiced for two years in Forsyth, Montana with John D. Melcher. For three years he served in the U.S. Army Veterinary Corps. In 1971-72 he studied at the Royal Veterinary College in London, England. Until his retirement in 1990 he was a small animal practitioner in Campbell, California. He served in all offices of the local VMA, and was also active in the local emergency clinic. He and his wife Hannah have a daughter, Leslie, and a son, Richard.

Dale E. Kelley is active in a small animal practice in Sauk City, Wisconsin, with his son, Joseph (WSU '89). In the past he has served as president of the Dane County VMA, the Wisconsin VMA, and the Wisconsin Academy of practice. He is a charter member and past-president of the Sauk-Prairie Optimists Club. He has served as Commander of Post 167 of the American Legion and as vice-president of St. Aloysious Parish Council. In 1974, he received the Wisconsin Legislative Citation. He is currently president-elect of the Midwest Small Animal Association. He and his wife, Donna, have four children: Cynthia, Joseph, Patricia, and Tim.

Jestin E. Ober has retired from practice and lives in Live Oak, Florida. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three children: Patrick, an M.D., Mark, an attorney, and Susan, an O.R. technician.

R. J. Peglow is employed by the USDA Meat and Poultry Inspection Service. He and his wife, Jan, have three children: Paul, Pam, and Kirk. They reside in Sunrise Beach, Missouri.

Donald H. Perkins is now retired in Cresco, Iowa. He has been active in the AVMA, IVMA, church board, school board, and saddle club. Dr. Perkins and his wife, Helen, have six children: Robert, Ann, Carin, Ed, Faye, Gretchen, and nine grandchildren.

Michael L. Quinlan has been retired from the Federal Meat Inspection Service since 1981. He has been active in the National Association of Federal Veterinarians. He and his wife, Mary, live in Des Moines, Iowa and have five children: Mary, William, Ann, Stephen, and Elizabeth.

Robert E. Rodgers is the Nebraska State Animal Epidemiologist. He and his wife, Helen, reside in Lincoln, Nebraska and have three children: Robert, Karen, and Christine.

James R. Rosdail is now retired in Pomeroy, Iowa. He was on the IVMA Executive Board, past President of the IVMA, State Board of Veterinarians Medical Examiners, National Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine, IVMA Foundation, AVMA Foundation, and AVMA Executive Board (Past Chairman). Dr. Rosdail has been involved in various church and social organizations, Boy Scouts, local government, school boards, Sons of Norway, Trinity Regional Hospital Board, Hospital Foundation Board, and Blue Cross of Western Iowa and South Dakota Board. He and his wife, Mildred, have six children: Jay, Gail, Jan, Joy, Tom, Jon and Leanne (deceased). They have nine grandchildren.

George E. Schoel has been retired since June 1, 1989 and resides in Hiwasse, Arizona. Dr. Schoel is a life member of the IVMA, a prize-winning rose exhibitor and dog exhibitor. He has been president of the American Shih Tzu Club, State Center Development, Inc., the Lions Club, and of the State Center Rose Festival Association, and served as an Iowa Council member. Dr. Schoel was Chief of the Bureau of Animal Welfare for the state of Iowa and was instrumental in bringing about changes in the Iowa Animal Welfare Law. He and his wife, Janice, have two children, Randy and Christine.

Jack P. Stream has been retired since September, 1990 from practice with his associates: Dr. L.R. Edrington (KS), Dr. Gerald Katzer (KS), Dr. Jerry Thomas (KS), and Dr. John Maxwell (IA). He and his wife, Loraine, have four children: Cheryl, Vicki, Steve and Scott. Dr. Stream has served as the president and secretary of the SW IVMA and president of his local school board.

Robert A. Telleen is retired from veterinary practice and works as an investment broker. He was in practice with Dr. H.R. Wesson from 1951-1953, in solo practice until 1980 when he and Dr. John V. Ward (ISU '45) formed the Jefferson Veterinary Clinic. Dr. Telleen is past president of the North Central IVMA, past member of the IVMA Executive Board, member of the AVMA and IVMA, certified member of the International Veterinary Acupuncture Society, and has served on local school and library boards. He and his wife, Dorothy, have three daughters: Terri, Barbara, and Susan.

Otto K. Van Roekel is active in a mixed practice in Aledo, Illinois. He belongs to several veterinary organizations, the J. C. Club, the Aledo Kiwanis Club, and the Aledo Methodist Church. Dr. Van Roekel and his wife, Rosalie, have two children, Kermit and Vivian.

Merrill M. Vanderloo is active in a large and small animal practice in Dubuque, Iowa with his associates, Dr. Michael White (ISU '76) and Dr. Philip Olson (ISU '80). He and his wife, Betty, have three children: William, Marjorie, and Robert.

Earl L. Wahl has been retired from a predominantly large animal practice in Anamosa, Iowa since January, 1988. He moved in February, 1990 to the Green Hills Retirement Complex in Ames. Dr. Wahl has four children and four grandchildren.

John B. Watkins is a USDA Section Veterinary Medical Officer and Port Veterinarian. He is a past President of the North Dakota VMA, Delegate to the AVMA, and past President of the Minot Rotary Club. Dr. Watkins and his wife, Fern, have two children, Mark and Beth.

Robert D. Wunder is now retired in Avoca, Iowa. He is a life member of the AVMA and the IVMA, a member of the SW IVMA, the Phi Zeta Honor Fraternity, and the local school board. He and his wife, Jean Frances, have six children: Steve, Brian, Mary, Dennis, Ellen, and Mark.

Frank W. Young has been active in a large animal practice in Waucoma, Iowa for the last thirty years. After graduation, he practiced with his father, Dr. F. B. Young in Waukeet for seven years, then practiced in Sumner for three years. Dr. Young and his wife, Kathleen, have four sons: John, Bruce, Wilson, and Martin.

Class of 1961

Charles W. Baltzell is active in a mixed animal practice with his associate and son, Dr. David G. Baltzell (ISU '85). He and his wife, Sharon, have two additional children, Lonnie and Missy. Dr. Baltzell has been active in the AVMA, NVMA, Ogallala City Council, and as a Scoutmaster and 4-H leader.

Roger Bryan is in a small animal practice with his associate, Dr. Nancy Peterson (ISU '81). Dr. Bryan was an associate in mixed animal practices in 1961 at Salem, South Dakota and in 1962 at Spencer, Iowa. In 1963, he was a partner in a mixed practice in Mitchell, SD. In 1969, he was a member of the SD Livestock Sanitary Board. He purchased a small animal practice in Des Moines in 1972. In 1979, he built a new animal hospital which became AAHA certified. He was elected to the Windsor Heights City Council in 1989. Dr. Bryan is active as a shareholder and board member of the Animal Emergency Clinic of Des Moines. He is a member of the GDVMA, IVMA, AVMA, and AAHA. He and his wife, Kay, have two daughters, Michelle and Janee.

Larry J. Celmer is active in a practice in California. He is on the Board of Directors of the Torrance National Bank and the Relevant Business Systems, Inc. He is active in the St. John Fisher Catholic Church. Dr. Celmer and his wife, Martha, have two children, Lon and Kristen, and one grandson.

Russell W. Chapin has been active in a small animal practice since 1967 at the Animal Medical Clinic in Wheaton, Illinois with his associates: Dr. Steve Borrowiak (IL '83), Dr. Don Ernat (IL '85), and Dr. Dennis Diemer (ISU '90). From 1961-63, Dr. Chapin served in the U.S. Air Force Veterinary Corp. He then went into practice in Elkhart, Indiana from 1963-67. Dr. Chapin is President Elect of the Chicago VMA, Past President of the Midwest Small Animal Association, President of the Advisory Committee for the Vet Tech Program at the College of DuPage and Harper College, on the Board of Directors of the Delta Society, Vice President of the Cosley Animal Park Foundation, on the Board of Directors and Past President of the Emergency Clinic, Hospital and Area Director of AAHA, and a member of the AVMA, IL VMA, and the Wheaton College Animal Care Committee. Dr. Chapin is also involved in a number of local organizations and activities. He and his wife, Dorothy, have a son, Brad and two foster sons, Sam and Mike.

William Cusick is active in a predominantly large animal practice in Dyersville, Iowa. Dr. Cusick is a member of the AVMA and the IVMA. He and his wife, Betty, have four children: Wayne, Sheryl, Lee, and David.

Richard C. Dillman has been a veterinary pathology professor at North Carolina State University since 1975. After graduation, Dr. Dillman practiced in a companion animal practice in Chicago until 1962. From 1962-68, he was a graduate student/instructor at Kansas State University where he received his PhD in pathology. He was a faculty member at ISU from 1968-75. Dr. Dillman and his wife, Carol, have two children, Teresa and Patrick.

Robert D. Glock is a diagnostic pathologist at Colorado State University. He has practiced in Wisconsin and Arizona. Dr. Glock is active in the AVMA, AASP, AAVLD, and VSAHA. He has three children: Karen, Jeffrey, and Douglas.

Charles Haight is in partnership at the Belt Line Pet Hospital in Crystal, Minnesota with Dr. John Miskowice (MN '72). Dr. Haight is a member of the AVMA, MVMA, and the Metropolitan Small Animal Association. He and his wife, Laurie, have two children, Lowell and Kari.

James M. Hamilton is active as a partner at the Brown Veterinary Hospital in Colorado Springs, Colorado, with his associate Dr. Homer Brown (CSU '40), Dr. Richard Conley (CSU '70) and Dr. James Grassmeyer (ISU '68). He has served as past president of local, area and state veterinary associations, as Area Director of AAHA, and is currently Regional Director for the Western Region of AAHA. Dr. Hamilton is also a past president of the Cheyenne Mountain Lions Club and has served on committees for various community and church activities. He and his wife, Marti, have three children: Jay, Tracie and Lara.

Wendell E. Johnson is a Circuit Supervisor with the USDA Meat and Poultry Inspection Service. He and his wife, Marilyn, have two children, Linda and Curtis. Dr. Johnson is involved with the National Association of Federal Veterinarians, IVMA, ISUVMA, Eastern Iowa VMA, Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge, and Kopper Klowns.

Sam (F.J.) Judge is employed by the National Institute of Health in Maryland where he is involved in work with lab animals. Prior to this, he was in the U.S. Army at Fort Detrick, Maryland for 2 years and at the National Academy of Sciences in Washington, DC for over 2 years. Dr. Judge has three children: John, Julia, and James.

Daniel J. King is involved in research for the USDA at the Southeast Poultry Research Laboratory in Athens, Georgia. Dr. King's research focus is in diagnosis and control of the viral poultry diseases, Newcastle and infectious bronchitis.

J. J. Liska is in a predominantly food animal practice with his associates, Dr. K. R. Liska (ISU '69) and Dr. D. A. Swerczek (KSU '69). He and his wife, Donna, have three children: Anne, Bob, and Bill. Dr. Liska is Past President of the Nebraska VMA, past member of the Board of Directors of the AASP, past chairman of Professional Pet Products, Ltd., bank board director, producer of registered Angus cattle, and is involved in many local community activities.

Arthur H. Mally is active in a mixed animal practice with his associates, Dr. Darrell R. Boettcher (ISU '68), Dr. Paul J. Armbrrecht (ISU '70), Dr. Vincent J. Collison (ISU '88), Dr. Jane M. Lau Collison (ISU '88), and Toni Rist, registered AHT. Dr. Mally is a member of the AVMA (lifetime), IVMA, and the Lake City Development Center. He does volunteer teaching and videotape work through the Arrowhead AEA involving the heart, digestive system and lung dissection. Dr. Mally is also active in local chamber activities and does community service PA announcing work for various towns, fairs, horse shows, and school events. He and his wife, Aliene, have two children, Patricia and Robert.

Robert R. Matheson is active in a mixed practice with his associates, Dr. David A. Larson and Dr. Scott Curry. He is involved in the AVMA, IVMA, biological research with ISU, Biological and Pharmaceutical Sports and Field Day Committees, 4-H activities, is a Newton County Club Champion, IVMA 7-time golf champion, and does swine consulting. Dr. Matheson and his wife, Joan, have four children: Michelle, Kristin, Sally and Rob.

Robert L. Mersch has been retired since 1986 from a large animal practice in Fairfax, Minnesota which was established by his father, Dr. Louis D. Mersch (ISU '28). He is now the Executive Vice President of the Bank of Menomonie in Wisconsin. Dr. Mersch is a current member of the AABP, AASP, and the AVMA. He is Past President of the Minnesota Valley VMA and former President of the Board of the Minnesota Animal Health. Dr. Mersch is past Commandor of the Fairfax American Legion, past President of the Fairfax St. John's Lutheran Church, past President of the Fairfax Lions Club, past President of Dunn County United Way, former member of the Fairfax School Board, current member of the Menomonie Lions Club and the Menomonie St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and a former Captain in the U.S. Army Veterinary Corps. He and his wife, Laurie, have two sons, Michael and Daniel.

John R. Riddell served in the U.S. Army Veterinary Corps until his retirement in 1986. He is currently enjoying a second full-time career as a gunsmith. Dr. Riddell and his wife Nancy have two children, Jean and Andy.

Richard L. Schumacher is active in a small animal practice. Dr. Schumacher was President of the California VMA in 1988, on the Board of Governors of the CVMA from 1984-1990, President of the Napa-Solano Veterinary Association in 1976, President of the Dublin Chamber of Commerce in 1974, President of the Benicia Chamber of Commerce in 1977, member of the Benicia School Board from 1976-1990, and President of the Benicia School Board in 1989. He and his wife, Ann, have two children, Steven and Michael.

Vernon Seltrecht is active in a small animal practice in Wilmette, Illinois with his associates, Dr. Joseph R. Terry (ISU '52), Dr. Linda Lapin (ISU '82), Dr. Richard Mattson (ISU '87), and Dr. John Oschenreiter (ISU '89). He is involved in the AVMA, IL VMA, Chicago VMA, and the Illinois Academy of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Seltrecht and his wife, Lois, have two children, Dennis and Jennifer.

James J. Sheldon is active in a large animal/veterinary consulting practice in Casa Grande, Arizona. He is a member of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists, AVMA, Arizona VMA, and has the Academy of Veterinary Consultants Veterinary Pathology degree. Dr. Sheldon has a daughter, Jodi.

Jerry TePaske is active in a small animal practice in Camp Springs, Maryland with his associates, Dr. John Martellini (Tus '75), Dr. Paul Breckenridge (KS '86) and Dr. Gary Holmes (OH '87). He is past President of the Maryland VMA and is currently a legislative representative. He and his wife, Sue, have two children, Joel and Erin.

James R. Winburn is a free lance writer, "thanks to experience as a former editor of the ISU Veterinarian," he says. He operated the Valley Veterinary Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona with his former associate, Dr. Robert Voetberg (ISU '53), then entered the USDA Meat Inspection Service and advanced to Assistant to the Regional Director of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Iowa. He retired from this position in 1989. Dr. Winburn and his wife, Alice, have five children: Deborah, James, Bruce, Cynde, and Robert.

B. T. "Butch" Wolf is semi-retired and active in the McHenry VMA, North Illinois VMA, IVMA, and AVMA. Dr. Wolf is the charter director of the First National Bank of Marengo, Illinois. He and his wife, Jane, have five daughters: Wendy, Sharon, Molly, Deborah, and Kathryn, and have six grandchildren.

Our Dedication to you, the Veterinarian of Tomorrow....

No company works more closely with veterinarians. Our knowledgeable field staff, customer service representatives and technical services department are always available to answer questions. They'll provide you with the latest research and the latest products. And, because our products are sold through veterinarians, no company promotes your role in animal health management like SmithKline Beecham does.

As you grow in your education and practice, SmithKline Beecham will be with you every step of the way.

SB
SmithKline Beecham
Animal Health

