

FICTION BIOS

Kestrel Henry is currently studying political science and international studies. She enjoys self-expression through words and photography.

Baylee Rees is a sophomore majoring in Child, Adult, and Family Services and minoring in English. I wish to save the world, own a silky cape, and write inside all of the empty and full minutes. I hope life takes me to different countries, loving on people, helping the hopeless and doing it all in the unconditionally loving name of Jesus Christ.

Cody Kuntz is a 22 year old senior from Wever, Iowa currently pursuing a B.S. Degree in Biology from Iowa State University. When he has completed his undergraduate degree, he plans to apply for the Masters of Arts in Teaching Science program and become a High School science teacher. He has always enjoyed writing as a hobby and would like to continue writing fiction in the future as a side job.

Heather Deaton is a senior studying literature. She's always loved reading and writing, and is currently enrolled in ENGL 404. She loves fantasy, sci-fi, steampunk...really pretty much anything unreal that can be written to seem real. She has an AA from DMACC and is also Publicity Chair for the Iowa State Fencing Club.

Rachel Routier is a Senior graduating in May with a degree in English Literature. Don't ask what she will be doing after that because it's a scary answer. She is currently unaddicting herself from Mountain Dew for the fourth time (this time is for real). And living in the day to day writing, hanging out, homeworking, and working as a checker in a grocery store. Come see my sexy bow-tie.

Rachel Cramer is a junior majoring in biological/pre-medical illustration with minors in Spanish and anthropology. After graduation, she plans on serving abroad for year before seeking a career as a museum exhibit designer and fabricator.

Ashley Schmuecker is graduating May 2011 with a degree in Religious Studies and Women's Studies and a minor in Anthropology. She spends a lot of time volunteering at the Margaret Sloss Women's Center and is also involved in the Social Justice Summit on campus, and does a lot of work with the Center for Creative Justice, a non-profit in Ames. Any extra time she has is dedicated to reading, writing, watching Dexter or HGTV. She is engaged to my amazing partner Zeyaad, and we will be moving to Portland in July.

Rachel Mary Wright is a senior in Integrated Studio Arts with an emphasis in Printmaking. When not working in the studio, she likes writing, watching the sky, and drinking tea.

Jacob Harvey is a Senior in Aerospace Engineering with little to no real interest in engineering, aerospace or otherwise. He is from Northeast (the best part of) Iowa, and currently spends most of his time doing homework, or avoiding it. At this point plans for the future are tentative (nonexistent).

Ryan Pesch is a senior who used to be an aspiring writer. He now plans on pursuing something that will make him money somewhere that will accept him. In addition to careers, he also quits sports.
