Devon O'Brien

What is the best purchase you have made this semester?
Hands down my boom box fanny pack. It has a pocket that I can hook my iPod up to and then it plays out the speakers on the front. It makes me look like I have swag, unless of course I'm listening to Adele.

What's your favorite 90's throwback song?
I think people don't give BBMak enough credit as a boy band because they stood in the shadows of 'Nsync and The Backstreet Boys. But their song "Back Here" will always be a number one in my heart.

Matt Wettengel

Hoping for anything to happen right now?
Sleigh Bells to hit Ames. I think that a dance floor full of intoxication and blasting their noise would be nasty fun.

Favorite part of Portlandia:
Put a Bird On It!

Summer Plans?
Hangout Music Festival and a week in a beach house in Gulf Shores, Alabama, at the end of May. Then an internship with the Scripps Howard Foundation in Washington D.C. up until classes start again next fall.

Yue Wu

Current obsession?
I'm always obsessed with good cameras and shoes!!!!!!!

Dream vacation:
I WANT TO VISIT THE KINGDOM OF BHUTAN SO FREAKING MUCH.

Who inspires you?
My grandma, she is most awesome person I have ever met. She has a great personality and gets along with everyone; sometimes I FaceTime her at parties so my friends can tell her hello! She inspires me to love and enjoy my life.

John Lonsdale

Top Tunes?
Not including "Party in the U.S.A.?" Santigold's "Disparate Youth." If they played it at the bars, Ames would turn to gold.

What are you doing right now?
Preparing for VEISHEA.

What should we know about this issue of Ethos?
You are probably reading this and not doing what the people on our cover are doing. And now you're feeling down. But that's okay because only a couple have done it, and now you have Ethos in your hands. Just know it's perfectly normal to get hot for a magazine. Now go read the story and then take a quick study break (or however long it takes you).

Taysha Murtaugh

Top Tunes?
I'll Try Anything Once by The Strokes.

Ever had a foreign object inside you?
Yeah, I still have a sea urchin spine in my heel from snorkeling this summer. Seriously.

Would you rather have four sets of eyebrows, or an extra set of ears on your neck?
Wow, you guys are really good at asking questions.

Emerald Klauer

Dream job?
An Advertising Art director, on the moon.

Dream vacation?
Ever since reading The Alchemist by Paulo Coehlo, I have wanted to travel to Algeciras, Spain. I would spend every day adventuring along the Strait of Gibraltar sailing back and forth to Morocco.

Summer Plans?
This summer I will be sticking my dogs' faces into my mouth, catching up on The Price is Right (Drew Carrey really isn't that bad), and trying to document the giant algae monster I know to be inhabiting the pond next to my house.
