
ALUMNI

Dr. Marvin E. Johnson

AAHA Appointment

Marvin E. Johnson, of Des Moines, IA, became Midwest Region Director of the American Animal Hospital Association during the AAHA Annual Meeting in San Francisco on April 4, 1984. The Association has nearly 10,000 veterinary members who are involved in small animal practice. The Midwest Region of AAHA includes North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio in the United States, plus the provinces of Manitoba, Ontario and part of Saskatchewan in Canada.

Dr. Johnson has been active in the AAHA for a number of years, and was appointed as an Area Director in 1979. He has served on numerous committees, including Economics, Education, Standards, and Public and Institutional Relations.

Dr. Johnson is also the 1984 president of the Iowa State University Veterinary Medical Alumni Association. He is chairman of the Iowa VMA Small Animal Committee, and has been a member of many other committees. He is currently a member of the Board of Directors of the Iowa State University Alumni Association.

He is also Director of an AAHA Member Hospital in Des Moines, and has recently opened a second full-service small animal clinic in West Des Moines.

Dr. Stanley E. Held

New AVMA Executive Board Member

Dr. Stanley E. Held, a general practitioner in Buffalo, MN, has been elected to the 16-member Executive Board of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

He will represent veterinarians in District VI, which includes Iowa and Minnesota.

A native of Hinton, IA, Dr. Held earned his veterinary degree in 1957 from Iowa State University. He then spent five years doing graduate work and clinical medicine at the University of Minnesota before purchasing his present five-veterinarian practice in 1962. He served as president of the Minnesota Veterinary Medical Association in 1972 and was chosen the state's Veterinarian of the Year in 1982. He also served on the Minnesota Agri-Growth Council and advisory committees to the University of Minnesota College of Veterinary Medicine and Waseca School of Animal Health Technology.

Dr. Held succeeds Dr. James R. Rosdail, of Pomeroy, IA, as the District VI representative.

Meeting of the ISUVMAA Board of Directors

Editor's Note: The following report is published at the request of the Secretary-Treasurer of the Iowa State University Veterinary Medical Alumni Association.

Alumni Room, College of Veterinary Medicine, Ames; May 30, 1984

Board Members present were Drs. Johnson, Hoefle, Christensen, Den Herder, and Hartwig. The Board met with Dean Pearson and Associate Deans Switzer, Baker, and Hogle. The college administrators reviewed major changes, plans, problems, challenges, and opportunities of the College of Veterinary Medicine.

The Board recommended that annual dues be raised to $15.00. This will be brought before the membership at the 1985 ISUVMAA general meeting.

Alumni receptions will be held at AVMA, AAHA, AABP, AASP, AAEP, Intermountain VMA, and regional state association meetings as appropriate.

Dr. Hoefle moved, Dr. Den Herder seconded a motion to pay $500 to the Student Chapter AVMA and $500 to the Student Chapter Auxiliary for work on 1983 Homecoming. The motion carried.

Dr. John Herrick will again be asked to write the Gentle Doctor publication. The board and administration of the college will be asked to submit items for this publication.

Dr. Hoefle agreed to determine who actually purchases the statues for Stange Award winners.

ISUVMAA input into the Awards Committee was stressed.

The Board passed a motion, moved by Den

Herder, seconded by Christensen, that the immediate past-president of the ISUVMAA remain one year on the Board of Directors. This will be appropriately incorporated into the by-laws. The meeting adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

Submitted and signed by:
Nolan R. Hartwig, DVM
Secretary-Treasurer
ISUVMAA

Class of 1934

Stanley L. Hendricks: is the retired Director of Disease Prevention, Iowa State Department of Health. He is currently volunteering at the University of Minnesota, School of Public Health in Minneapolis, MN. He and his wife, Doris, have one daughter, Judith, and two sons, Robert and Thomas.

Class of 1954

Glen E. Barrington: works in a mixed practice with Dale W. Longtin (ISU '58) and Donald D. Fick (ISU '64). Dr. Barrington is a member of the South Eastern IVMA, IVMA, AVMA and AAHA. He was past-president of the Muscatine Chamber of Commerce and is currently director of the Central State Bank, Muscatine. He and his wife, Ida, have two children, Gwen and Mark.

Edwin W. Branaman: is semi-retired in a part-time small animal practice he has owned for eight years in Danville, KY. Edwin and Bea have a son, Scott (34) and a daughter, Susan Mobley (31). Dr. Branaman has been active as a Jaycee, Kentucky VMA member, supervisor for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture (12 yr.) and an associate professor of veterinary technology at Morehead State University.

John A. Bush: is actively practicing in Flora, IN where he resides with his wife, Virginia. Their family includes two daughters, Jennifer and Jane, two sons, John and Jay, and two grandsons, Brian (4) and Jordan (3). Dr. Bush is a member of the Indiana VMA, AVMA, AASGP and AASP. He is also active with the County Board of Health, School Board, and the 4-H Association.

Theodore X. Cox: practices large animal medicine with Dr. Jim Wasson (ISU '74) in Armour, SD. He and his wife, Pat, have two children, Jan (31) and Jody (27), and three grandchildren. Dr. Cox has served as city councilman and mayor, is past-president of the Interstate Veterinary Medical Association and South Dakota VMA, and is currently an elder in the Lutheran Church.

Ross DeWitt: is retired from practice and is currently a manufacturing representative for Hi Rollers, a unique grain conveyor invented by a friend of Dr. DeWitt. He and his wife, June, spend their time traveling across the United States when not at home in Worthington, MN. They have three children, Diane, Tom, and Nancy.

Wayne H. Faber: is active in a mixed practice with Ronald Severson (ISU '50) in Le Mars. Dr. Faber was past-president of the Northwest IVMA and the Le Mars Lions Club, and served as past-secretary of his church board. He is also a member of the Northwest IVMA, Northcentral IVMA, IVMA, AVMA, Interstate VMA, Minnesota VMA, Western States VMA, Elks and Masons. He and his wife, Ruth Marie, have three children, Ana Marie (25), Jay Paul (24) and Heidi Lea (15).

J. D. Francis: works in both large and small animal medicine with Dr. F. E. Trafton (ISU '60). Dr. Francis and wife, Kathie, live in Ottumwa where their daughters, Cheryl and Carla, also reside. Their son, David, lives in Hastings, NE. Dr. Francis is on the IVMA Executive Board, the Union Bank Board of Directors, and the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Howard A. Haas: is involved with both large and small animal medicine in Huntington, IN. He and his wife, Audrey, have four children, Ronald (28), Nancy (26), Mark (22), and Allen (21).

John C. Haromy: is active in a small animal practice with Dr. Teresa Yoder-Reddick (Univ. of Florida '84) in Lake Wales, FL. He has served as secretary, treasurer, and president of the Ridge VMA. Dr. Haromy is a member of the Florida VMA, AVMA, AAHA, International Veterinary Acupuncture Society, American Veterinary Holistic Medicine Association, Rotary Club of Lake Wales, and the Knights of Columbus. Dr. Haromy and his wife, Barbara, have three children, Kathy (27), David (24), and Donald (21).

E. L. Henrich: is active in large animal medicine with Drs. D. L. Drum (ISU '59) and D. M. Drum (ISU '59). Dr. Henrich is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and AASP. He and his wife, Rita, have five children, Kathy Weiland, Sue, Ed, Tom, and Patty.

Robert M. Hensley: practices equine medicine in a solo practice in Lexington, KY. He is active in the Lexington Fencing Club and Flying Club, Amnesty International and the Central Kentucky Civil Liberties Union. He and Darrah, his wife, have eight children, Doug, Jennifer, Lisa, Joel, Scott (deceased), Tim, Todd, and Robbie (ages 30 through 7).

Merle H. Lang: is the Regulatory State Veterinarian for the State of Iowa. Prior to this position, Dr. Lang had a general practice in Davenport for 23 years. He is active in local and state associations and was past-president of the IVMA. He and his wife, Bonnie, have five children and nine grandchildren, ages 2 through 22.

Donald J. McKenna: is currently teaching and doing research at the University of Illinois Department of Veterinary Clinical Medicine. He and his wife, Kay, have five children, Marilyn (32), Marie (27, BS from ISU '79), Monica (24), Mary Jo (21, BS from ISU '84) and Mark (18). In the 30 years since graduation, he has held various offices in local and district veterinary associations and several on school and church boards. Dr. McKenna finished a Master's Degree in Veterinary Clinical Medicine in 1981 at ISU.

George W. Meyerholz: is program leader for the USDA Veterinary Medical Extension Service in Alexandria, VA. He and his wife, who is deceased, have three children, Linda (32), Steven (30) and Larry (29). Dr. Meyerholz was an extension veterinarian in Illinois from 1963 to 1968 and in Florida from 1968 to 1981. His honors include the Florida VMA Outstanding Contributions to Veterinary Medicine (1973 and 1976), the Extension Veterinarian of the Year (1981), and current Honorary Diplomate, American College of Veterinary Preventative Medicine (1984). He has served as chairman of the JAVMA Committee on Publications (1983 to 1984) and is a frequent contributor to veterinary publications.

Allen Y. Miyahara: retired from the University of Hawaii in 1982 and is currently engaged by Norden Laboratories as field representative and consultant to Hawaii Veterinary Supplies, Inc. in Honolulu. He was pre-veterinary student advisor at the Univ. of Hawaii for 14 years. He is serving as executive vice-president of the Hawaii VMA and is in his fourth, four-year term as Hawaii VMA delegate to the AVMA. Dr. Miyahara and his wife, Sue, have a daughter, Tracy Allyn Miyahara.

Edward Jerome Murphy: is retired from practice in Milwaukee, WI. Dr. Murphy and his wife, Patricia, have one daughter, Laura (30), and four sons, Jim (28), Steven (27), Mike (25) and Phillip (18).

Robert J. Nelson: is active in a five-person small animal practice with Drs. G. F. Lynch (MSU '52), W. E. Hoppe (MSU '70), J. Frank (Ill '79) and M. M. Keefe (Purdue '80) in Milwaukee, WI. Dr. Nelson is a member of the Wisconsin VMA executive board, AVMA, and AAHA. He was past-president, secretary, and treasurer for the Milwaukee VMA. He and his wife, Ellen, have three sons, Kip Robert (29), Kurt William (27), and James Paul Nelson (24).

Howard C. Nicoll: is currently engaged in marketing and sales support for Agri-Sales Association in Nashville, TN. After graduation, he spent 20 years in a three-man mixed animal practice in Riceville and was very active in numerous civic organizations. He has served on various committees at both the local and state level of the IVMA. Dr. Nicoll was Director of Technical Services For Syntex Agri-Business and became president of Dellen Laboratories before his present position. He and his wife, Vivian, have six children.

Stanley Charles Romans: has practiced small animal medicine in Mason City since graduation. He and Patricia, his wife, have two daughters, Beth Ann and Cathy Sue, and one son, John Stan Romans.

Conrad S. Steiner: practices small animal medicine in Lexington, KY. He has held all offices in both the Central Kentucky VMA and Central Kentucky Small Animal VMA. He also belongs to the Kentucky VMA and AVMA. Dr. Steiner served as deacon elder, and has been head usher for 15 years at the second Presbyterian Church in Lexington. He and Betsy, his wife, have two children, Linda (21), and David (19).

Lee G. Sutherland: is retired from the USDA. He and his wife, Evelyn, have four children, Donna (33), Jim (31), Linda (29), and Jerry (27).

Kenneth L. Turner: is president of the Pre-Mix Manufacturing Company in Forreton, IL. He is the director of the Forreton County Mutual Insurance Company and is a member of the Lions Club and the AVMA. He and his wife, Fay, have seven daughters and two sons.

Vincent A. Votteler: is employed as a foreign animal disease diagnostician, brucellosis epidemiologist with the Veterinary Services Division of APHIS, USDA. He and Pauline, his wife, live in Pierre, SD. They have two daughters, Vicki Dammogard (24), and Jane Salmon (21).

Dale K. Welbourn: is active in a large animal practice with partner Dr. Dale R. Jensen (ISU '78). Dr. Welbourn and his wife, Norma Jean, have two daughters, Lona Krutzfeldt (24), and Nancy (21).

Class of 1964

Phyllis C. (Beck) Burch: runs a mixed practice in Hillsboro, Wisconsin. She is married to Donald Burch, and they have four children: Valerie (18), June (17), Blanche (15), and Bill (12). Dr. Burch's activities include Coulee Region, Wisconsin State, AVMA, and AABP.

Nolan R. Hartwig: is an Extension Veterinarian at Iowa State University. He has two sons: Robert (19) and Brad (13). Dr. Hartwig is a member of several organizations including AVMA, IVMA, AABP, and AASGP. He previously operated a private practice in Perry, Iowa. In 1973 Dr. Hartwig earned a Master of Science Degree at Ohio State. He was an extension veterinarian at Ohio State from 1973-1983 and has been Diplomate to the American College of Veterinary Preventative Medicine.

Larry Hauptmeier: is active in a large animal practice with associate Dr. Robert Larson (ISU '74) in Overton, Nebraska. He and his wife, Phyllis, have four children: Becky (18), Tyler (14), Sara (13), and Beth (11). Dr. Hauptmeier is a member of AVMA, NVMA, and District VI local NVMA.

Bernard R. Hecht: practices small animal medicine with Dr. Mark Shackelford (OK State U '82) at Hecht Veterinary Clinic in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He has two children: Jason (15) and Brielle (8). Dr. Hecht belongs to AVMA and OVMA and is president of the local SPEBSQSA chapter.

Clair L. Henke: is involved in industrial research. He and his wife, Irene, have two sons: Alan (16) and Andrew (15). Dr. Henke is a member of AVMA, AASP, AABP, and AAIV. Since graduation he has participated in several activities. From 1964-65 he was in large animal practice in Iowa. From 1965-68 he was a meat inspector, and from 1968-71 he attended graduate school at the Univ. of Minn. In 1972 Dr. Henke practiced large and small animal medicine in Minnesota. From 1972-77 Dr. Henke was involved in research and development for Burrough Wellcome, and from 1977 to the present he does research and development for Upjohn.

Leland F. Hodoval: practices small animal medicine with Dr. Ronald E. Hodoval (ISU '56) in Evansville, IN. He and his wife, Judith, have three children: Dana (21), Kristin (18), and Wendy (15). From 1964-66, Dr. Hodoval was active in the US Army. In 1968 he earned an MS Degree, and in 1971 he earned a PhD, both at the University of Missouri. As he practices, Dr. Hodoval has held various local and church offices.

Dennis D. Jorgenson: is a dairy practitioner in Norwood, MN, with associate Dr. Jim Esselmann (Minn '83). Dr. Jorgenson and his wife, Lois, have three children: Wayne (16), Jennifer (13), and Rebecca (7).

John D. Lanz: practices large animal medicine with Dr. Gary W. Leach (KSU '77) at Bassett Veterinary Clinic in Bassett, NE. He and his wife, Peggy, have two sons: Tom (28) and Mike (26). They have a grandson named Jesse.

Richard Larsen: practices predominantly dairy medicine in a mixed practice with associates Dr. D. E. Johnson (MN '57), Dr. S. A. Allenstein (Purdue '79), and Dr. F. J. DeGraves (MSU '83). He and his wife, Ann, have five children: Cathy (senior at St. Norbert College), Tom (sophomore at St. Norbert College), Mary (high school senior), Kris (high school junior), and Betsy (eighth grade). Dr. Larsen is a member of the local, state, and national veterinary organizations and AABP. He is a high school freshmen religious education instructor and the local school board treasurer.

Arthur R. Lemley: is active in a mixed practice with Dr. Mark D. Carlson (ISU '73) and Dr. Thayer C. Hoover (ISU '82). Dr. Lemley and his wife, Mary, have three children: Leslie (18), Ann (16), and Amy (13).

Robert H. McLain: practices at Addison Animal Hospital, a small animal practice in Addison, IL. He and his wife, Linn, have two daughters: Leslie (21) and Kerry (19). Dr. McLain is a member of the AVMA, Chicago Veterinary Medical Association, and the Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association.

David D. Nighswonger: is active at West Sioux Veterinary Clinic, a mixed practice in Hawarden, IA. His partner is Dr. Richard Johnson (ISU '81). He and his wife, Connie, have two sons: Barton (18) and Benton (15). Dr. Nighswonger served in the US Army from 1964–1966. He is a member of American Association of Swine Practitioners and AVMA.

Virgil M. Petty: practices small animal medicine in Pekin, IL. He and his wife, Pat, have two children: LeAnn (22—Stephen College) and Jay (19—Iowa State). Dr. Petty is a member of the local, state, and national AVMA. Other activities include Auction Chairman of the American Business Club, Board of Directors of Pekin Memorial Hospital, and United Way Board.

William J. Quinn: is presently involved in Veterinary Diagnostic Medicine. He and his wife, Jane, have a daughter, Anne Elizabeth (18), and a son, Paul William (15). After graduation Dr. Quinn did an internship in large animal medicine at the Univ. of Minn. (1964–65), and was an instructor at the large animal clinics there from 1965–69. Subsequent to that, Dr. Quinn was a Veterinary Diagnostician at the Montana Veterinary Diagnostic Lab from 1969–79. From 1979 to the present he has been the director of the Diagnostic Lab. Other activities include diplomate of the ACVP 1980, Montana Board of Veterinarians 1984, and member of the AVMA and Montana Veterinary Medical Association.

Jeptha F. Randolph, Sr.: has operated a mixed private practice in Mechanicsville, IA, since 1964. He and his wife, Joann Mae, have seven children: Ritchie (29), Monica (27), Victor (26), Melody (25), Jeptha (23), Madonna (21), and Paul (19). They also have two grandchildren: Shane and Katherine. Dr. Randolph is a member of the local, state, and national veterinary associations. He also belongs to the Commercial Club, Lion's Club, and Lincoln Community School Board. He owns and operated Doc and Jo's Restaurant and Lounge in Mechanicsville. His hobbies include hunting, fishing, and farming.

Lester J. Reschly: has been active in a small animal practice in Columbia, MO, since 1969, where he and six others operate three facilities. His associates are Dr. Jack R. Horton (Missouri '57), Dr. John S. Williams (Missouri '72), Dr. Patricia Leudders (California '65), Dr. Burton G. Schauf (KSU '81), Dr. Mark Parchman (Missouri '84), and Dr. Jean Wright (Missouri '84). Dr. Reschly's wife, Shirley, is a homemaker, and they have three children: Deborah (31—travel agent), Jason (28—lawyer and CPA), and Jolene (19—college student). Dr. Reschly has worked in mixed practices in Farragut, IA, and Red Oak, IA. He earned a Master's Degree of Veterinary Physiology at the University of Missouri in 1968. Active in several organizations, Dr. Reschly is a member of IVMA, MVMA, and AVMA. He has been vice-president and president of West Central MVMA, member of the Dean's Advisory Committee MVMA, Small Animal Committee of the MVMA, Animal Technician Committee of the MVMA, vice president of Central Missouri Humane Society, finance chairman of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church, president of the Missouri Sheep Producers (1981–83), and a member of the Governor's Advisory Council on Agriculture (1981–present).

Keith Rolston: practices at Sheldon Veterinary Clinic, a six-person mixed practice (85% large, 15% small). His associates include Dr. Ko Fertig (ISU '57), Dr. K. J. Groninga (ISU '62), Dr. D. A. Seehusen (ISU '74), Dr. Don R. Hemerson (ISU '52), and Dr. Don R. Hemerson II (ISU '76). Dr. Rolston and his wife, Janice, have four children: Kecia (19—Northwestern College), Liesl (18—high school senior), Marni (14—high school freshman), and Nathan (13—seventh grade). Dr. Rolston has been secretary of the Interstate Veterinary Medical Association in Sioux City, IA, for 12 years. He is also the president-elect of this association and is on the executive board of the Iowa Veterinary Medical Association. Dr. Rolston is presently a member of the Practice Management Committee (IVMA) and the Nomination Committee (IVMA).

Norman P. Shipherd: practices small animal medicine at High Ridge Animal Hospital in High Ridge, MO. He and his wife, Dr. Wendy Fagan, have a daughter, Stacy Lynn. Dr. Shipherd is a member of the Greater St. Louis Veterinary Medical Association in which he has been a committee and board member. He also belongs to the Missouri State Veterinary Medical Association and to AVMA.

James W. Sievers: is active in a mixed practice in Slater, IA, with his brother, Dr. Donald W. Sievers (ISU '73). He and his wife, Marigrace, have three children: Scott (24), Lori (21), and Beth (19).

Patrick J. Smith: is an equine and small animal practitioner at Indian Creek Veterinary Hospital in Cedar Rapids, IA. He and his wife, Claire, have two children: Matthew (16) and Michelle (13). Dr. Smith's activities include president of the Kiwanis club and member of the All Iowa Fair Board. He is also an associate instructor at Kirkwood Community College.

Phillip Standley: is practicing small animal medicine with Dr. James Spurgeon (Ohio State '52) and Dr. Barry Zonkel (Ill. '64) in Bourbonnais, IL. He and his wife, Donna, have four children: Lori (19), Jill (16), Alan (10), and Kara (8). Dr. Standley is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and AAHA. He is a Rotary president and serves on his church board.

James A. Sweeney: works at Bloomington Veterinary Hospital, a small animal practice in Bloomington, MN, with associates Dr. William H. Sweeney (ISU '67), Dr. Mark Prochaska (ISU '80), Dr. Mike Westfall (ISU '79), Dr. Deane McCale (ISU '81), Dr. Marcia Whited (ISU '84), Dr. Richard Cleary (MN '76), and Dr. Kristine Roe (ILL. '76). Dr. Sweeney and his wife, Judith, have one daughter, Kathleen (19). He is a member of several organizations including AAHA, AVMA, and MVMA. He serves on the Advisory Board of Health in Bloomington and on the Advisory Board of HHT program.

Daryl C. Thake: works in industrial pathology. He and his wife, Janice, have two daughters: Lisa (18) and Jill (14). Dr. Thake is a member of AVMA, Phi Zeta, Sigma Xi, International Academy of Pathology, and the Society of Toxicologic Pathologists. He is also a diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists.

Arlen V. Zierke: is a Veterinary Consultant specializing in swine in Hubbard, IA. He and his wife, Sana, have three sons: Eric (21), Borge (19), and David (18). Dr. Zierke was the senior partner in a three-man general practice until 1983. He is now conducting a single-man specialty consultation practice with the majority of his time spent with a swine breeding company.

Class of 1974

David Eich: practices small animal medicine with David Gunderson (ISU '83) in Sunrise, FL. Dr. Eich and his wife, Carol, have two children, Dustin (6) and Jarrod (5).

Mike Miller: is in a mixed practice, predominantly large animal, with Rick Runyon (ISU '71). After graduating, Dr. Miller served as a volunteer in the Peace Corps in Brazil until 1975. He then worked in a mixed practice in Waukon and moved to Chariton in 1976, where he now resides. He is a member of the South Central IVMA, IVMA, AVMA, is active in the Jaycees and as a local 4-H leader. He and his wife, Linda Kay (ISU '73), have two children, Ryan (4) and Barry (1).

Continuing Education

The following Continuing Education offerings have been programmed by staff members of the College of Veterinary Medicine, Iowa State University, and the Iowa Veterinary Medical Association. Other offerings will be announced in the Veterinary Extension Newsletter and the IVMA Newsletter.

For further information, contact:
Dr. James D. McKean, Chair
Continuing Education Committee
College of Veterinary Medicine
2270 Veterinary Medicine
Iowa State University
Ames, Iowa 50011, Phone (515) 294-8790

February 3-6

IVMA Annual Meeting—Marriott Hotel, Des Moines, IA.

February 9

Pleasure Horse Clinic—College of Veterinary Medicine, Scheman Continuing Education Building, open enrollment. CE credits—6 hours.

February 18-20

Intermountain Veterinary Medical Association Meeting—Las Vegas, Nevada.

February 26-March 5

Eastern Iowa Veterinary Medical Association, Acapulco Surgery Seminar. Contact Dr. Dean Frey, Cedar Rapids, IA for more information.

February 28

Computers in Veterinary Medicine (lecture-laboratory)—Scheman Continuing Education Building. Enrollment limited to 40. CE credits—7 hours.

March 13

Introduction to Swine Embryo Transfer (lecture-demonstration)—College of Veterinary Medicine, Alumni Room. Open enrollment with a minimum of 6. CE credits—6 hours.

March 23-29

American Animal Hospital Association Annual Meeting—Orlando, FL.

March 24-26

American Association of Swine Practitioners Annual Meeting—Marriott Hotel, Des Moines, IA.

March 21-28, April 4, 11, 18, 25

Six-week Small Animal Seminar Series—Council Bluffs, IA. Contact Dr. Harry Schumacher, Council Bluffs, IA, 712-323-0598. Minimum enrollment of 25 required. CE credits—18 hours.

April 4

Southwest Iowa Veterinary Medical Association Spring Clinic—Bradley Sale Barn, Red Oak, IA.

April 16

Dog Warden Symposium—College of Veterinary Medicine, Scheman Continuing Education Building, open registration. CE Credits—6 hours.

May 9

Eastern Iowa Spring Clinic—Hawkeye Downs, Cedar Rapids, IA.

May 20

North Central Iowa Veterinary Medical Association—Fort Dodge American Legion Country Club, Fort Dodge, IA.