

FOREWORD

The growth of forestry in the "home state" should be of interest to both alumni and students. From the Forestry Department the paths lead in many directions. In our diversified profession, graduates find challenge, satisfaction, and a continuation of the learning process. To closer ties among students, faculty, and alumni, the cause of forestry in Iowa, and the success of the individual forester, the members of the 1969 staff have pledged their efforts.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Ames Forester is grateful to all those who have helped make this publication possible. We deeply appreciate the financial support of our patrons and advertisers. The help and advice of Dr. Dean Prestemon, our faculty advisor, and Mr. Robert Schwartz of the Iowa State University Press were invaluable. We are further indebted to the faculty members, students, and other individuals who offered help and suggestions.
