FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
VETERINARY MEDICAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

JANUARY 22, 1968

The Phi Zeta invitational banquet was held April 16, 1968, in the Campanile Room, Memorial Union, at 6:00 p.m.

Dr. A. E. Ledet, Assistant Professor, Veterinary Pathology and Dr. John S. McKibben, Instructor, Veterinary Anatomy accompanied the junior class on a tour of the drug companies at Indianapolis, Kalamazoo, and Chicago on February 25 through March 3, 1968.

Dr. Margaret W. Sloss, Professor of Veterinary Pathology, was recently named to Who's Who in American Women. The College of Veterinary Medicine takes pride in this recognition of Dr. Sloss' outstanding service and achievements.

Dr. Vaughn Seaton, Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory, was named Chairman of the newly organized Story County Board of Health. The board is essentially a policy and planning board with a staff of nurses and sanitarians to carry out the policy.

Dr. Richard R. Ross of the Veterinary Medical Research Institute has recently passed his board examination for certification as a Diplomat in the American College of Veterinary Microbiologists. This college is a certifying agency for veterinarians with special competency in the field of veterinary microbiology.

Dr. E. D. Roberts, formerly in the Department of Veterinary Pathology at Iowa State University, is now Director of the Rockefeller Laboratories at Bogota, Columbia.

The Fifteenth Annual Meeting of the Iowa State University Veterinary Medical Alumni Association was convened at 12:00 noon in the Wedgewood Room, Hotel Fort Des Moines, Des Moines, Iowa, January 22, 1968. President H. V. Lewis called the meeting to order with 145 persons in attendance.

The minutes of the Executive Board meeting held October 14, 1967, were presented by Secretary D. L. Baker. Moved by Cowles, seconded by Osborne, that the minutes be approved as presented. Motion carried without dissenting votes.

The Treasurer's report for 1967 was presented by Treasurer Baker. The report of the Auditing Committee was read by President Lewis. Bartley moved its approval, seconded by Paul. Motion was passed.

Baker moved the acceptance of the audited Treasurer's report. Seconded by Spear. Passed unanimously.

The report of the Nominating Committee was given by G. W. Cornwell. The slate of nominees offered:

President-elect—Dr. R. E. Shirbroun, Box 147A, Route 1, Coon Rapids, Iowa 50058

Executive board member—Dr. John Patterson, 634 44th Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50312

1968-70 term

Secretary-Treasurer—Dr. Margaret Sloss, Department of Veterinary Pathology, College of Veterinary Medicine, Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa 50010

There were no further nominations from the floor. All nominees were declared eligible for the respective offices. A unanimous oral ballot was cast for the above named nominees. Dr. Ralph Weber's term on the Executive Board is for the 1967-69 term.

Head Football Coach John Majors was introduced by Athletic Board member Dr. Russell Anthony. Mr. Majors gave an excellent 20 minute talk on the future of football at Iowa State and the need for sincere, enthusiastic and continuing support of veterinary alumni in athletic activities.

Upon completion of John Majors' talk, President-elect Shirbroun moved that the Association sponsor an annual (continuing) membership in the Century Club—a supporting organization of the Cyclone

Club. Voetberg seconded. Motion carried.

R. J. Cowles requested the Treasurer repeat the unencumbered assets of the Association. Dr. Cowles then moved a second Century Club membership be voted for 1968. Seconded by Carmichael. Motion carried.

Mr. Robert Crom was introduced by Lewis. Mr. Crom will become Executive Secretary of the Iowa State University Alumni Association and Executive Director of Alumni Affairs succeeding W. E. "Red" Barron, July 1, 1968.

Retiring President Lewis installed Mack A. Emmerson as President. The meeting was adjourned at 1:25 p.m.
