Alumni Celebrate Homecoming

On Saturday, October 26, 268 alumni and spouses attended the annual homecoming luncheon at the College of Veterinary Medicine. This is the highest number that attended the event for several years. Unfortunately, most of the festivities had to be held indoors because of cold, rainy weather. The Cyclones and Oklahoma State Cowboys game resulted in a 6-6 tie.

The Student Chapter Auxiliary and the Student Chapter of AVMA provided the management and work that went into this event. Their ambition, organizational skills, and spirit of camaraderie vividly demonstrate that our profession and its leadership will be in good hands for years to come. Special thanks to Darci Steckelberg and Lisa Nelson for their leadership, hard work, and cooperative spirit. ISUVMAA rewards the students and auxiliary by helping underwrite their annual trip to the national Student Chapter of AVMA held each spring.

Dr. Loyd Jensen, Class of '51 organized a 40th year class reunion which included the homecoming luncheon, a banquet on Saturday evening, and a Sunday morning brunch. Forty-nine of Fifty-five living classmates and 97 total people associated with the class of '51 attended. Thanks, Dr. Jensen, for your hard work.

Dr. Robert Carithers organized a 35th reunion for the class of 1956. Thirteen classmates attended.

The Homecoming reunion and luncheon is the largest event sponsored by ISUVMAA. Student, faculty, staff, and alumni participation make this a successful annual event. Join us next year if you haven't been back to your academic home recently.
