

Alumni News

Class of 1963

Bruce E. Baxter is the sole owner and practitioner in a large animal practice in Van Horne, Iowa. Dr. Baxter states that his activities since graduation are “too many to put down” and that he balances his time so that he can get his fishing time in. Dr. Baxter and his wife, Julie, have five daughters: Denise, Cindy, Kathy, Laurie, and Jessica.

Roger T. Brown is active in a small animal practice in Omaha, Nebraska. His activities since graduation include: service in the army (1963-1965), base veterinarian at Marine Corps Schools in Quantico, VA, chairman of the board of ANCOM, Inc., Cartel, Inc., FSDI, Inc. and Ornamental Fish Industries, Inc. He is a member of AVMA and Nebraska Academy of Veterinary Medicine. He lives with his wife, Nancy.

Dean Duitscher is retired and living in Rolfe, IA. He and his wife, Melvane, have four children: Deb, Dan, David and Denise.

Lawrence E. Evans is currently a professor at Iowa State University and lives in Ames, IA. Dr. Evans earned his Ph. D. in 1973 and served as a Diplomate in Theriogenology in 1975. He has served as departmental Chairperson since 1983. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA, Society for Theriogenology, American College of Theriogenology, ISU Vet. Med. Alumni Assn., Phi Zeta and American Assn. of Swine Practitioners. Dr. Evans received a Faculty Citation in 1985. He and his wife, Shirley, have five children: Mark, Shawn, Tracy, Troy and Elizabeth.

John Flint is active in a mixed practice in Charles City, IA. Dr. Flint served in the U.S. Army for 2 years and has been practicing for 25 years. He is currently a member of AVMA, IVMA and the Kiwanis organization. He and his wife, Jody, have one son, Jim.

Gary W. Fisher is active in a mixed practice in Winterset, IA. He is currently a member of IVMA and has served on several IVMA committees as well as the executive council. Dr. Fisher and his wife, Phyllis, have four children: Tamara, Todd, Lisa and Kurt.

Ron Isaacson is active in a small animal practice in Bloomfield Hills, MI with his partner, Dr. Jim Coleman, and associate, Heidi Kern. Dr. Isaacson is active at local, state and national levels in veterinary management. He is currently in the process of building a new veterinary hospital. He is also the professional grandfather to five grandsons who are all wrestlers. He and his wife, Mary, have three children: Sherri, Kathi and Scott.

Dick Jaspers is currently active in a mixed practice in Greene, Iowa with his associate, Dr. John Moellers (ISU '88). Dr. Jaspers is a member of the IVMA, AVMA, AASP, and AABP. He and his wife have three children: Lori, Scott, and Brian.

Richard Kirchgatter is the president of a small animal practice in Canton, Michigan. His associates include: Dr. Cliff McClumpha, Dr. Chuck Bares, Dr. Betty Routson, and Dr. Kevin Burt. Dr. Kirchgatter served as President of the Southeastern VMA in 1975 and was a member of the Rotary Club of Plymouth, Michigan for 26 years (President 1980-81). Also, he was a Canton Planning Commissioner for 14 years. Dr. Kirchgatter and his wife, Elaine, have three daughters: June, Jill, and Joy.

Larry L. Kramer is currently living in Cortland, New York.

Edwin R. Linder is active in a mixed, predominantly dairy, practice in Dodgeville, Wisconsin with his associates, Dr. John D. Samuelson, Dr. Alan Holter (ISU '88), Dr. Peter Vanderloo (ISU '76), and Dr. Joseph Bodewes. Dr. Linder served as President of the Society for Theriogenology in 1984 and President of the WVMA in 1986. He received the Wisconsin Veterinarian of the Year Award in 1986 and the WVMA Meritorious Service Award in 1987. Dr. Linder was a representative for the Society for Theriogenology in the AVMA House of Delegates from 1986-1990. He and his wife, Pat, have three daughters: Sharon, Jane, and Catherine.

James Lucas is active in a bovine and porcine practice in Bedford, IA with his partner, Dr. Jim Cummings (ISU'72). He is involved in many community activities. He and his wife, Kay, have four children: Jamie, Matt, Shelly and Joe.

Raymond J. Morandi is active in an equine practice in Orland Park, IL. Dr. Morandi has been a member and chairman of the Illinois State Veterinary Licensing and Disciplinary Board for eight years. He is also a member and president of the Illinois Academy of Veterinary Medicine. He is Deacon in Christian Hills Full Gospel church in Orland Park. He and his wife, Janice, have three children: Kristin, Carla and Raymond J. Jr.

Morgan E. Nederhiser lives in New London, MN where he is active in USDA Regulatory Medicine. He is also in charge of inspection at Jennie-O Foods in Willmar, MN. He and his wife, Patricia, have three children: Jean Marie Trumbo, Michael J. and Morgan P. Nederhiser. They have two grandchildren: Amy Marie and Ian Michael. After graduating Dr. Nederhiser established and conducted a solo large animal practice in Guttenberg, IA from 1963 to 1984. He entered Government service in 1984 as a supervisory veterinary medical officer. He was originally sent to Huron, SD, and in 1990 he moved to Willmar, Mn.

Martin A. Patch is working for the USDA's Food Safety and Inspection Service and living in Chantilly, Virginia, with his wife, Virginia. Dr. Patch is a member of the National Association for Federal Veterinarians, the National Association of Veterinary Parasitologists, the National Association of Food Hygiene Veterinarians, and the AVMA. He was voted Man of the Year by the Pender United Methodist Church and served as chairman of the Pender Outreach Center, which distributes clothing and furniture to the poor. Dr. Patch and his wife have three children: Kevin, Kyle, and Kristine.

Merritt W. Pitcher retired from mixed practice in August of 1992 to pursue other interests. He is currently living in Morrison, IL. He served in the Army Veterinary Corps from 1963 to 1965 and then moved to Morrison where he spent 27 years in practice. Dr. Pitcher has also been a hot air balloonist since 1976. He and his wife, Judy have three sons: John, Jim, and Andrew.

Harry Schumacher Jr. is the owner of a companion animal practice in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Dr. Schumacher is a member of AAHA, AVMA, the Academy of Veterinary Cardiology, and the Nebraska Academy of Veterinary Medicine. He has served on the IVMA Public Relations Committee, the Salvation Army Advisory Board, and the Meals on Wheels Board of Directors. Dr. Schumacher and his wife, Linda, have three daughters: Sondra, Sonja, and Susan.

Joseph E. Wagner is currently the Chairman of the Department of Veterinary Pathology in the College of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri. Dr. Wagner received his Ph.D. in Pathology at the University of Illinois. He served as President of the American College of Laboratory Animal Medicine in 1986-87 and President of the American Association for Laboratory Animal Science in 1980-81. Dr. Wagner received the Charles River Prize in 1986. He and his wife, Kay, have four children: Cindy, Pam, Jennifer, and Doug.

Dennis L. Williams is active in a general practice in Huron, SD. He and his wife, Gladys, have four sons.

Class of 1973

Chess Adams is currently serving as the Associate Professor of Radiology at the University of Wisconsin School of Veterinary Medicine. He has been on the staff at Wisconsin for 11 years and was part of the faculty of the University of Illinois for four years. He has a diploma from the American College of Veterinary Radiology. Dr. Adams and his wife, Kathy Gruber have four daughters: Abbey, 12, Katie, 10, Chelsey, 9 and Heidi, 7.

Thomas C. Arand is an active small animal veterinarian living in Georgetown, TX and practicing in Round Rock, TX. He was president of the Capital Area AVMA in 1986 and currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Williamson County Humane Society. He is married to Kim DeBok.

Lu Ann Arney is in a 100% equine practice with draft horses being her favorite. She practiced in Montana for several years after graduation. Dr. Arney's avocation is raising and showing draft horses. She follows the show circuit for draft horses and mules. She also enjoys hunting elk out west.

Mark L. Ayer is the owner of a small animal practice in Archdale, NC. He makes his home in High Point, NC.

Ken Bartels lives in Stillwater, OK where he is an Associate Professor in the Department of Medicine and Surgery and teaches small animal surgery at OSU. His research interest is in laser surgery. He is still somewhat involved in the Army Veterinary Corps as a Reserve Officer assigned to the Military Working Dog Center in San Antonio. He was activated during Desert Storm and spent three months away from home. He and his wife of 22 years, have a daughter, Elizabeth.

Theresa L. Beguin is active in a mixed animal practice in Rushville, Nebraska. She just completed construction of a new clinic. She is married to Bernard Strong.

Allan Bench is married to Marla (ISU '73) and has two children, Vaughn, 8 and Merica, 6. He enjoys soccer and outdoor activities.

Randy Blaylock is active in a mixed animal practice in Hedrick, IA where he is an IVMA member, a board member on several committees and a basketball coach. He is married to Barbara and has three children: Rebecca, 18, Chris, 14 and Ben, 13.

Tim Blair has been an Army Veterinarian for three years at Fort Campbell, KY. He is the owner of a private small animal practice in Tomahawk, WI. He and his wife, Barb, have five children: Karen, 22, Dan, 21, Paul, 15, Charlie, 14 and Sara, 11.

Tim Bloom lives in San Francisco, CA where he is part owner of a practice.

Larry Booth is an active associate professor of surgery at Iowa State University, Ames, IA where he lives with his wife, Marilyn and children, Matthew, 22, Zachary, 10, and Adria, 16. He did a MS at Michigan State University in 1977, as well as a large animal residency. He received his Board Certification in Surgery in 1982.

Carla L. Bregman lives in Syracuse, NY, where she has spent 10 years at Bristol-Myers Squibb and was recently promoted to Senior Veterinary Pathologist from Principal Vet. Path. She and her husband, Mark, have one daughter, Brook.

Douglas R. Brost is active in a small animal practice in Sioux Falls, SD, where he lives with his wife, Susanne, daughters, Alissa and Natalie, and sons Matthew and Ryan.

Mark Carlson lives in Cherokee, IA, where he is practicing at the same place he started in 1973. He works mainly with swine and beef cattle. He is married to Jan and they have two children: Britt, 11 and Michael, 3. The family lives on a farm and raises registered Angus cattle.

Bruce Carter is currently with Veterinary Services in Des Moines, IA. He is married to Betsy and they have two children: Nate and Lacey. He enjoys traveling and learning Spanish.

Jonathan N. Chambers is a Professor and Chief of Staff in small animal surgery at the College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Georgia, Athens, GA, where he lives with his wife, Christy and daughter, Catherine, 13. He did an internship, AMC, and a surgery residency at the U. of GA. He joined the surgery faculty at the U. of Illinois in 1977. He earned his ACVS Diplomate in 1979 and became Chief of Staff in small animal surgery in Georgia in 1990.

Jo Lynne Cleveland is an active small animal practitioner in her own practice with an associate, Ed Minard. She lives in Elgin, Illinois with her husband Nick Varallo and children, Sara, 16 and David, 14. She is currently a member of the IVMA, Chicago Veterinary Medical Association, and Kane County Vet Association. She just built a new home 2 miles from her practice.

Gary Connell currently works in a mixed practice. He lives in Shenandoah, IA, with his wife, Jane, and children: Amy, Rory and Ross.

Pat M. Crawford became an Associate Professor of Veterinary Physiology at Louisiana State and is a Professor and acting head of the department. He and his wife, Carolyn, have three children: Tracy, Brett and Scott.

J. R. Davidson lives in Lakeville, MN, with his wife, Linda have three children: Sarah, Suzanne and Joel. He is working on cattle and horses.

Ron Emerson lives and practices in Clarion, IA where he raises racing standardbreds. He and his wife, Sally have three children: Jenny, Jill and Quinn. He is finishing his fourth-year as an officer for the IVMA.

John W. Fanton is on active duty in the U. S. Air Force in San Antonio, TX, where he lives with his wife, Darla. Upon graduation he went into private practice for three years, joining the air force in 1976. He earned his Masters Degree at Colorado State University in 1982 and became a Diplomate, American Board of Vet Practitioners in 1985.

Jerry Lee Gingerich is the owner and director of two small animal hospitals in Punta Gorda, FL and North Port, FL. His wife, Jane serves as office manager and they have two children: Todd and Wade. Dr. Gingerich is the founder of the Vet for Peace River Wildlife Center and is on the Board of Directors for the Animal Welfare League. He also serves on the board of a local Vet Association Emergency Clinic.

Wayne Alvin Haidsiak is active in mixed practice in Lenox, IA. He and his wife Donna have five children: Mike, Tracy, Wayne III, Barbara Jean and Samantha.

Don Hansen practices in Shelby, IA.

He is married to Cindy and they have two children: Adam, 10 and Vanessa, 6. Dr. Hansen raises thoroughbred horses.

James A. Heminover is active in the USDA Food Safety and Inspection Service as a Veterinary Staff Officer. He lives in Spotsylvania, VA where he and his wife, Adela have four children: Paul, Pamela, Mark and Matthew.

Duane Jordison is an active large animal practitioner in Fairmont, MN, with 10 associates or partners from I.S.U. and U. of MN. Dr. Jordison lives in Fairmont with his wife, Shirley, and sons Brian, and Matt. Duane is involved in the AASP, the AABP, and the AVC.

Richard Karlin lives in Columbus, NE. He has two children: Kelly Ann and William Michael.

Gary L. Kleppe is active in a mixed practice in Monroe, WI, where he lives with his wife, Debra (I.S.U. '73), and daughter, Jennifer, 13 and son, Christopher, 10. Dr. Kleppe has been at Monroe Vet Service since 1973 and is a member of the Rock Valley VMA, WVMA, AVMA, and the AABP. Robert Kieth, '59, is one of his associates.

Michael Knezevich practiced for 10 years in a large animal practice and is currently in a 2-3 person mixed practice. He and his wife, Carolyn have two children: Peter and Gregory.

Suellen Kotake-Hollars lives in Waipahu, Hawaii where she has owned and operated a one-person small animal practice for the last 13-14 years. She is married and has pets. She is also active as a legislative lobbyist.

Gary Kramer joined an established dairy practice, where he is now the senior member. He and his wife Kathy have three children: Kurt, Mat and Dan. They live in Lena, Ill.

William Kuhfus started in mixed practice in Oswego, IL and moved to a mixed practice in Dixon, IL where he became a partner. He and his wife, Nancy, have three children: Stacey, Tera and Matthew.

Robert Larson lives in Overton, NE. He is in a three man, mostly large, animal practice. He and his wife Linda have three children: Judd, Amy and Mark.

John Lawrence and his wife Fran live in Baton Rouge, LA. He has one daughter Carmel. He enjoys diving and traveling.

William Liska and his wife Denise moved to Houston three years after he completed his surgery residency where they still reside . They have three children: Julie, Kristie and Justin. Dr. Liska has built a surgery referral practice based in a general practice which has since become an exclusively referral practice with eight specialists and 35 employees.

R. Douglas Loftin, Jr. is owner of a large animal practice which he owns called Loftin Veterinary Services. He lives and practices in Osage, IA. He and his wife, Mary, have two children: Rob (junior at ISU in pre-vet) and Kelly. Dr. Loftin moved back to Osage to practice with his father.

Marilyn Lowe lives in Denison, IA and practices in a mixed practice which she started from scratch right after school.

Jon Maxwell is in a mixed four-person practice in Deep River, IA. He and his wife, Judy have three children: Grant, Dana and Cory.

Rod McDonald started out in Gull, MO twenty miles from where he is now, Princeton, MO. He is currently working in an 85% large animal practice. He and his wife Ann have three children.

Dennis Meester is the owner of a three-man mixed practice in La Port City, IA. He and his wife Toni have one daughter, Tammy. Both wife and daughter work at the clinic.

Bradley L. Moses is a cardiologist and staff clinician at Roberts Animal Hospital , runs a mobile ultrasound, is a clinical Assistant Professor at Tufts University School of Vet Med and a consultant for Cardiopet. He is married to Nancy, and they have one son, Scott.

Brian Oetjen and his wife Kathy have two children Kary ,14, and Thomas, 12. Brian was President of Dairyland Veterinary Associates. Kathy is sole owner of House Calls for Pets. They live in Fond du Lac, WI.

Lynette Ohl lives in Denison, IA, where she has cocker spaniels and 35 Quarter Horses.

Myron W. Person is an active part-time practitioner at the Mountain View Vet Clinic in Vancouver, WA. Dr. Person lives in Scappoose, OR with his wife Janice, and four children, Karisa, 16, Jeremy, 16, Shawna, 14, and Ryan, 12. He has practiced in Sioux Falls, SD , and completed a surgical residency and M.S. at Washington State University, where he also taught small animal surgery. He has also started a master of divinity degree at Goldengate Baptist theological Seminary.

Jeanne Ramsey is an associate in a two-person small animal practice in Groton, NY. Her husband, Kent is a board certified Radiologist.

John Riebhoff lives in Winfield, KS where he has four children and a grandchild on the way. He attended seminary in Ft. Wayne and for the past 10 years has worked at the Kansas State Institution for Mentally Retarded.

Suzanne Robinson is active in a small animal practice which she purchased in 1991. She lives in Ankeny and practices at the Grand Avenue Veterinary Hospital in West Des Moines. She and her husband, Daniel have three children: Aaron, Lindsay and Danna. Her associates include Barbara Conley (ISU ' 84) and John W. Patterson (ISU ' 47).

Patrick F. Rohret is active in a mixed animal practice in Adel, IA. He works with Dr. H.T. Holcomb (ISU ' 65). He and his wife, Maureen have four children: Todd, Lori, Christi and Lisa.

Jan G. Rossiter is active in a small animal practice in St. Simons Island, GA where he is owner of the practice. He and his wife, Cathy have two sons, Luke and Ian.

David D. Schmitt lives in Stuart, IA and has three children: Laura, Cameron and Connie.

Gerry Palen Schultz is currently working in a small animal practice in Glendale, CA. She and her husband, Peter have three children: Jeffrey and Jessica (twins) and Andrew.

Craig Schwartz is in an equine practice in Bossier City, LA. He has been divorced for 12 years and has two children: Shaun and Michelle.

Donald W. Sievers is active in a mixed animal practice in Slater, IA. He and his wife, Marilyn have four children: Natalie, Matt, Katie and Chris.

Ralph Snodgrass has been in a small animal clinic since 1975. He also works at a harness track on weekends. He lives in Warsaw, NY.

Glen Spaulding is currently Director of Lab Animal Medicine at Tufts University. After graduation he interned at AMC, taught at Cornell for four years and worked at Harvard School of Public Health Research and at Mass. General Hospital.

Ann Squier is living on a farm in Orchard, IA. She is now a mender at a knitting mill.

Dan R. Stark is active in a mixed incorporated practice of which he is the president. He started construction of a new clinic in August. He lives in Sullivan, WI and has worked at Sullivan Vet. Service since graduation. He and his wife, Jennifer have four sons: Brian, Eric, Kevin and Craig.

John Stevenson is active in a mixed animal practice in Austin, MN. He and his wife, Julie have two children: Travis and Emily.

Al Van Arkel lives in Plainfield, IA and is a senior partner in a three-man mixed practice. He has three children: Ryan, Amy and Matt.

Paul Von Behren is active in an industrial swine genetics breeding company. He lives in Fremont, NE where he and his wife, Linda have two children Leslie and Aaron.

Paul Wade is married to Gigi and they have a daughter, Natalie. They live in Kokadjo, ME.

Craig D. Welbourne is active in a small animal practice in Oak Forest, IL. He lives in Western Springs, IL with his wife, Sue, and their children Ben and Bridget.

Bob Wessels is a small animal clinician in Taunton, MA where he lives with his wife, Rose, and children Tim, Laurie, Scott and Sara. He is active in the Rotary and Masons.

Russ Weston is in a large animal practice in Lena, IL where he does mainly dairy work. He lives in Lena with his wife, Helen, sons: Jeff, 17, and Tony, 10, and daughters: Jill, 16, Deanna, 14, and Ann, 8. Dr. Weston is active on the school board, and is very pleased with his new facility.

David Wilgenbusch lives with his family in Creston, IA. Dr. Wilgenbusch is part of a three man large animal practice, working full time. His wife, Linda works part time for the County Public Health Nursing Service and also as a Mary Kay beauty specialist. His children, Jessie, Matt and Michael are busy as a college student, a senior in high school and a junior high student.

Dennis Winter is enjoying practice in a mixed practice in Hubbard, IA, but looking forward to slowing down. He lives in Hubbard with his wife, Trudy and children Niki 20, Josh 18, and Jake 16. Dr. Winter is active in "Pheasants Forever", a conservation group to keep pheasants in Iowa, as well as fishing and hunting.

Debbie Wismer is active in small animal practice in Millersville, PA where she lives with her husband, Robert and children, Michael (15), Mary (10) and Karen (7).

Arlen L. Wonderlich is currently a swine specialist for Cenex/Land O'Lakes in Waukon, IA, where he lives with his wife, Karlene and daughter, Ahren. His other two daughters, Annalie and Kirscha, attend ISU studying Biology and Interior Design. Dr. Wonderlich practiced for 18 years. He is a member of the AABP, the AASP, the AVMA, IVMA, and the EIVMA. He has also served on the IVMA judicial committee for 2 terms, the IVMA livestock Market Committee, and the Allamakee County Board of Health.

Dan Woodlee is the sole owner of a small animal practice in Burbank, IL where he lives with his wife, Nadine and children, Rebecca, 5, and Brandon, 1.

Kenneth Wulfekuhle is an active large animal practitioner in Edgewood, IA where he lives with his wife, Judy and daughter, Melanie, 8. His other children are Sheryl, a medical student at the Univ. of Iowa, Bryan, a veterinary student at ISU, and Kara, a nursing student at Univ. of Iowa. Dr. Wulfekuhle is active in the AVMA, the AASP, the AABP, IVMA, EIVMA, as well as the local school board and church school board. His associates include Gary Eiben, ISU '80, Mark Hauser, ISU '85, and Shelly Reid, ISU '88.

Robert Ziemer is the president and treasurer of Lynn Animal Hospital where he is a small animal practitioner in Riverdale, Maryland. He lives in Laurel, Maryland with his wife, Margaret and children Rhys, 12 and Emille, 10. He is a member of Prince George's County VMA, Maryland VMA, AAHA, AAHA, AVMA, D.C. Academy of Veterinary Medicine, International Churchill Society, and the Sons of the American Revolution.

CLASS OF 1983

David Baum is an active swine practitioner in Postville, IA where he lives with his wife, Sandi and children, Chris, 17, Heather, 14, and Ryan, 10. Dr. Baum is active on the AASP executive board, the IVMA Executive board, the American Society of Microbiologists, the American Management Association, the AVMA, EVMA, AASP, and American Society of Animal Science. His associates include Larry Moore, '78, Ken Werton, '68, Mary Nelson, '92 and Jeff Grossdidier, '92, all from ISU, and Willen Deltough and Kevin Jacob, both from Illinois State.

Jeff Cornick is active in small animal practice as an owner. He lives in Mason City, IA with his wife, Peggy and son, Kinsey, 2. He is president of the Lime Creek Nature Center Board on environmental/nature organization.

Robert C. Dysko is an Assistant Professor of Laboratory Animal Medicine at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He is board certified by the American College of Laboratory Animal Medicine, and is currently chairman of the ACLAM examination review committee. He is also the founder and first president of the Michigan Academy of Laboratory Animal Medicine. He lives in Saline, Michigan with his wife of nine years, Patricia and children, Elizabeth, 5, and Matthew, 3.

Richard Eccleston is working as an engineer involved in the design of tracking radars installed in missiles and aircraft. He works for Westinghouse Electric Corp. in Huntsville, Alabama, where he lives with his wife, Michele and daughters: Joyce, 4 mo., Sharon, 2, and Lynn, 4. He worked at Central Veterinary Service, a mixed practice in Melbourne, IA for a year and then finished his B.S. in electrical engineering at ISU in 1988.

Tom Ellenberger is in research at Lambzidge, MA where he lives with his wife, Mazy (ISU DVM '81). Tom earned his Ph.D. in 1989 from the Harvard Medical School. He also did a postdoctoral fellowship until 1993 in the department of biochemistry during which, he became an Assistant Professor in the Department of Biological Chemistry and Molecular Pharmacology in the Harvard Medical School.

Emery W. Field is the owner of a large animal veterinary hospital in Bozeman, MT, where he lives with his wife, Dee and sons: Clint and Chad. He is a member of the AVMA, MVMA, and in 1993 received the DHIA Art Fox memorial award.

Michael Fisher is an active veterinary medical officer for the USDA and the FSIS in Ames, IA where he lives with his wife, Eva and children: Mike, Dan and Elizabeth. He attended the FSIS management academy and managerial development programs, and is currently a part-time graduate student in veterinary pathology.

Patricia (White) Foley is working in regulatory Veterinary Medicine at the Veterinary Services Laboratory in Ames, IA where she lives with her husband Leonard and daughter, Molly, 1. She is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, USAHA, AAEP, Omega Tau Sigma, Gamma Sigma Delta, Phi Zeta, Phi Kappa Phi and ELCA.

David Gardner is active in a mixed animal practice in Alburnett, IA where he lives with his wife, Sue, and children Sara, 3, and Ellen, 1. He is a board member on the EIVA and an executive board member of the IVMA. He works with Dr. Mike Halsor, ISU '89.

Lewis Gelfand is active in a small animal and exotics practice in Long Island, NY where he lives with his wife, Alison, and children: Alexander, 6 and Nicolette, 2. He is a past president of the Long Island Veterinary Medical Association, and a member of the AAHA, NYSVMA, AVMA, VCS, AAV, and the LIVMA.

Jack Gochenour is active in a predominantly small animal practice in Missouri Valley, IA where he lives with his wife, Kris and children: John, 7 and Sherry, 5. He is an active member in the AAHA, AABP, IVMA, and the AVMA.

David Gunderson is a manager and operator of a veterinary emergency clinic in Lake County, FL where he lives with his wife, Denise and sons: Grant, 7 and Blake, 1. He is a member of the AVMA and was an associate in South Florida for 10 years prior to moving to Central Florida.

Kurt Kenney is active in an exclusively small animal practice in Rutland, Vermont where he lives with his wife, Sharron and son, Rainer, 2. Dr. Kenney did an internship and surgical residency at the Animal Medical Center in New York, NY, and is currently a member of the AAHA, AVMA, and Vermont Veterinary Medical Association.

Doug King is a mixed animal practitioner in Durant, IA at the Walcott

Veterinary Clinic. He lives in Durant with his wife, Teresa and children: Jackie, 7, and Barry, 4. He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, EIVMA, and the AASP. His associates include K. M. Wilcke, ISU '60, G. C. Garvin, ISU '78, G. A. Allison, ISU '84, and J. R. Berger, ISU '88.

Katrin Kolder is a small animal practice owner in West Branch, IA where she lives with her husband, James Madsen. She is also an IVMA committee member.

Kathleen and Mark Kovacs live in Ivoryton, CT where Kathleen works as a scientific journal editor, and Mark works as a lab animal veterinarian at Pfizer, Inc. Kathleen finished her MS in civil engineering at Notre Dame Univ. and is a member of the AAUW, the Council of Biology Editors, and the American Writers Association. Mark did a residency in Laboratory Animal Medicine at Univ. of Illinois at Chicago, and both are members of the AVMA and the AALAS.

Ann Knowles Kramer is co-owner of a mixed animal practice in Fullerton, NE with her husband, Dr. Jim Kramer. They live in Fullerton with their children: William, 7 and Daniel, 4. She is a member of the NVMA, a Boone - Nance County extension board member and a member of the AVMA. Her associate is Dr. Jim Kramer, ISU 1982.

Michael Kuhn is a large animal practitioner in Cascade, IA where he lives with his wife, Julie and children: Allyson, 7 and Brad, 5. He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, AASP, as well as being on the IVMA Board of Directors. He is also active in the local Chamber of Commerce and the Dubuque County Veterinary Medical Society. His associates are Robert Kadlec, ISU '83, Joe Jedlicka, ISU '78, Thomas White, ISU '60, Chris Paulsen, ISU '90, and David Prentice, ISU '91.

Bruce Leuschen is a dairy practitioner for the Decorah Veterinary Clinic in Decorah, IA where he lives with his wife, Kelly and children Jessica, 8, Jordan, 6 and Jackson, 4. He is a member of Dairy Production Medicine, the AABP, AVMA, IVMA, and the NMC. His associates are Gordon Gelo, ISU '76, Robert Stalberger, ISU '87, and Jeff Piper, ISU '87.

Kenneth Malm is active in a nine person practice in Bolton, CT where he lives with his wife, Cynthia. He is a member of the CVMA Executive Board.

Elizabeth Nelson is an active associate in a mixed animal practice in Plattsburgh, NE. She lives with her husband, Richard in Murray, NE, and her children Krista, 4, and Synneve, 6. Upon graduation she worked in Alaska at the Yukon Quest International Sled Dog race and the Iditarod Sled Dog Race. Among her other experiences in Alaska was participation in a whale rescue in Barrow, Alaska.

Paul Oberbroeckling is active in a small animal practice in Denver, CO, where he lives with his wife Rebecca Orr and daughter Helen, 4. He is a member of the AVMA, the Colorado VMA, the Denver VMA and the IVMA.

Paula E. Parker is a managing partner for a small animal hospital in Sacramento, CA. She lives in Elvertta, CA with her husband Keven Wathier and daughters Blaise and Abby. She is a member of the Sacramento Valley Vet. Med. Association and the AVMA, as well as serving on the Board of Directors of the SVVMA emergency clinic.

Barbara (Yourshaw) Peters is living in Seattle, WA with her husband Barnaby Peters.

Suzanne and Paul Pitcher are living in Parkersburg, PA where Suzanne is active in a private equine practice and Paul is active as a veterinarian for the USDA. Paul earned his MS degree in Epidemiology at the University of Pennsylvania.

Steve Puderbaugh is active in a small animal practice as the owner of the Raymond Animal Hospital. He lives in Candia, NH with his wife Debra and daughters Laura, 7 and Krista, 5. He is active in the Rotary club, the AAHA, AAEP, AVMA and the NHVMA.

Dale Ritter is a small animal practitioner in Mokena, IL. He lives with his wife Magdalen in New Lenox, IL and is active in the AVMA, the IVMA, the AAHA and races Standardbred horses when time permits.

Loren Rossiter is a small animal doctor at the Hill Dale Vet Hospital in Baraboo, WI where he lives with his wife, Laura and son, Evan, 3. He is a consulting editor for the Ralston Purina Pet Information series, Chairman of the Genetics and Health Education Committee, and active in the A.K.C. English Springer Spaniel Parents Club.

Christopher W. Ruzicka is active in a small animal private practice in Gainesville, FL where he lives with his wife, Kate, (ISU '84) and children Kelly, 7 and Kacee, 2. He co-owns the practice with his wife, who is an equine practitioner.

Leann Schulz is an industrial veterinarian at the Grand Laboratories, Inc. in Freeman, SD. Dr. Schulz practiced 2 years at Viborg Veterinary Clinic. Her associate is Dr. Duane Pankratz, ISU '67, who is the President of Grand Laboratories, Inc.

Keith W. Shonewill is an active owner of a small animal practice in Sioux Falls, SD, where he lives with his wife, Wendy, son Seth, 6 and daughters Erin, 4 and Sara, 4.

Dianne Steele is an active small animal practitioner in Seminole, FL where she lives with her husband, Elliott, and children Ariel and Athena. She is active in the Seminole Chamber of Commerce, AAHA, AVMA, Florida VMA, Pinellas County Veterinary Medical Society, and the Pinellas Animal Foundation.

Paul Striegel is an active partner in a mixed animal practice in Bismarck, ND where he lives with his wife, Tami, and children Joseph, 7, Steven, 5 and Laurel, 2.

Gaylon J. TeSlaa lives with his wife Sara and children Tara Ann, Jay and Theo in Chatsworth, CA, where he is Hospital Director for a companion animal practice. He has practiced in Minnesota, Arizona and California. He is involved in the SCVMA, CVMA, AVMA, AIUM, VECCS, and other community organizations.

Renee L. Umanah is an active regulatory USDA/FSIS Circuit Supervisor in Northern Minnesota. She lives in Frazee, MN with her children: Ibanga, Katrina, and Mbang. She is a member of the NAFV, AAFHV, and has attended several training sessions at Texas A & M in Career Development for Women. She has received several performance awards from FSIS.

Janey Deuel Varhus is active in a mixed practice in Salida, Colorado, where she lives with her husband, Mark, and children: Jacob, 4 and Kjersti, 1.

Elizabeth McBroom-Vollbracht is active as a partner in a mixed animal practice in Kirkwood, IL, where she lives with her husband Jim.

Don Walter is an industrial veterinarian for Fermenta Animal Health Company in Kansas City, MO where he lives with his wife, Julie, and sons Colin, 10 and Morgan, 7.

Alan Younkin is active as a small animal clinic owner in St. Charles, MO. He lives in St. Louis, MO with his wife Sybil, and children Morgan, 5, Hayley, 4, Leah, 2 and Gordon, 4 months. After graduation, Dr. Younkin did a small animal internship at the University of Missouri at Columbia. His associate is Kristy Bradley, ISU '84.