WEST AMES

Every year college deans pop the routine question to their undergraduates, "Why did you come to college?" Last year one co-ed unexpectedly confided, "I came to be went with—but I ain't yet."

LUFKIN TAPES and RULES

For more than fifty years Lufkin Tapes and Rules have been the standby among foresters. They wear longer under hard use. Their markings are prominent and permanent. Their cost is low—considering their length of service and all-around utility.

Prof. Julander was rated in the Southwest for his ability to string a mean telephone line and was busily doing the same one day when an Indian, strange to those parts, walked up and watched in silent wonder. After a short while the Indian turned in disgust and walked away muttering, "Little white-chief dumb—stringum too high—cow walk under!"

What Follows Graduation—

Students who contemplate studying Forestry frequently ask the question: What follows graduation?

A recent analysis of all graduates of the Forestry Department at Iowa State College (331) answers that question:

Occupation	Number Employed	Percentage of Graduates
Federal Forestry work or related Federal service (Alumni are listed under 28 classifications in this service) .....	184	55.6
Industrial and private work .....	51	15.4
Educational work (includes heads of 3 college Forestry departments ....	27	8.2
Miscellaneous positions (not allied to Forestry work) .....	27	8.2
Temporarily unemployed .....	9	2.7
Unknown .....	1	.3
Deceased .....	7	2.1
Total .....	331	100

Of 42 graduates who received degrees within the last 12 months, including those who were graduated in March, 35 are employed in Forestry work, 1 is a high school teacher, 3 others are awaiting replies to recommendations and only three are unassigned.

To meet the demand for Foresters with specialized training, the course at Iowa State College has been broadened to include five years of study and to permit specialization in any one of four curricula: Forestry and Conservation, Forestry and Economics, Forestry and National Forest Range Management, and Forestry and Wild Life Management.

Inquiries regarding the Forestry course may be addressed to the Forestry Department or to the Registrar

ON THE CAMPUS

The laziest forester we know is the one who doesn't even stay awake in botany class to hear Doc Sass' jokes.

Doc: "When did you first suspect that your husband was not all right mentally?"

Mrs. Jones: "When he shook the hall tree and started feeling around on the floor for apples."

---

Pete Peterson to sleeping freshman: "Say! Are you a forester?"

Rudely awakened student: "Sure! Whataya wanta know?"

---

Baby Ear of Corn: "Mamma, where did I come from?"

Mamma Ear of Corn: "Hush, dear, the stalk brought you."

The doctor was examining school children. One youngster was under-weight.

"You don't drink milk?"

"Nope."

"Live on a farm and don't drink milk at all?"

"Nope, we ain't got hardly enough for the hogs."

---

I think that I shall never see
A billboard lively as a tree.
Perhaps, unless the billboards fall,
I'll never see a tree at all.

---

Nowadays a son usually finishes college and his dad at the same time.
