

DIVISIONAL NEWS

STUDENT

Engagements

William R. Hunter, '46, of Iowa City, Iowa, and Janet M. Stewart, H. Ec. '45, of LaGrange, Ill., announced their engagement on April 16, 1944.

Arthur J. McIntosh, '44, of Villisca, Iowa, and Doris Ann Ayer, H. Ec. '47, of Lead, S. D., announced their engagement on April 2, 1944.

Lawrence Magnall, '44, of Utica, Ill., was engaged to Miss Jean Scheerer, '44, of Boone, Iowa, on May 9, 1944.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Birk C. Lowther, '46, announced the birth of a son, James Birk, on April 16, 1944.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen N. Lang, '44, are the parents of a son, Allen Gail, born on March 23, 1944.

General

Gordon W. Howe, '45, of Fergus Falls, Minn., returned to classes April 12, after undergoing a tonsillectomy April 10, 1944.

The Jr. A.V.M.A. had its annual spring sport dance at the Ames Country Club on the evening of April 22, 1944. The music was furnished by Kenny Hull's band from Des Moines.

Philip G. Eldredge, '45, of Ames, Iowa, underwent an appendectomy in the College Hospital on April 26, 1944.

Pfc. David R. Bromwell, Ex. '45, is completing training at Camp Grant, Ill., and expects to be stationed at the Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Pfc. John A. Moellers, Ex. '46, and Pfc. James A. Sloan, Ex. '45, are taking a 12 week course in Veterinary Technician School at the Walter Reed General Hospital in the Army Medical Center at Washington, D. C. These men received their basic training at Camp Grant and will complete their studying at the technician school. Their work, following this training, although not yet definitely known, will probably be in the line of meat inspection.

Pfc. LaVerne E. Witt, Ex. '45, is stationed at the Lawson General Hospital in Atlanta, Ga. Included in his course of study, which will be completed in 4 months, are such familiar courses as chemistry, pathology, bacteriology and hematology.

Pvt. Peter Lustig, Ex. '45, has completed his basic training at Camp Dodge, Iowa, and expects to be assigned to the Intelligence Service.

FACULTY

Dr. Loyal C. Payne of the Department of Physiology was married to Miss Anne V. Agor, Diet. '44, of Aberdeen, S. D., on March 26, 1944.

Dr. H. L. Foust, Dr. D. A. Smith, Dr. E. A. Hewitt, Dr. C. H. Covault, Dr. L. C. Payne, Dr. G. R. Raps, and Dr. L. E. St. Clair attended the meeting of the Central Iowa Veterinary Medical Association at Des Moines, Iowa, on April 17, 1944. The speaker of the evening was Dr. W. L. Boyd of the Division of Veterinary Medicine of the University of Minnesota. His topic was "Our Present Concepts of the Etiology and Therapy of Sterility in Domestic Animals."

Two faculty members were on the program of the Southwest Iowa Veterinary Medical Association meeting held on April 4, 1944. Dr. R. A. Packer of the Department of Hygiene presented a paper on "Diagnosis and Control of Mastitis," and Dr. C. D. Lee of the Research Institute spoke on "Poultry Diseases."

A/s Ruth C. Hammond sends greetings from Hunter College, New York, N. Y., where she is studying to become a Medical Technician in the Navy. Miss Hammond is a graduate of Medical Technology, Michigan State College. Before entering the service Miss Hammond was the technician in the Department of Anatomy here at Iowa State College.

Mrs. Ann Hahn of West Des Moines, Iowa, has filled the vacancy left by Miss Cary J. Ennor as stenographer in the Pathology Department. Miss Ennor reported to Camp Lejeune as a private in the Marine Corps Women's Reserve.

"Services Provided by the Veterinary Profession," was the subject discussed by Dr. E. A. Benbrook of the Department of Pathology at the meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Des Moines, Iowa, on April 12, 1944.

Dr. G. R. Raps of the Department of Anatomy is now temporarily giving lectures in beginning obstetrics.

Dr. R. J. Getty, Jr., of the Department of Anatomy is assisting in the Department of Hygiene for the spring quarter.

JR. A.V.M.A.

Dr. H. C. Smith of the Allied Laboratories of Sioux City was the speaker of the evening at the meeting held Feb. 18, 1944. He spoke on "Eradication of Swine Brucellosis" and "Intradermal Vaccination of Cattle for Bang's Disease." Lantern slides were also shown to accompany the lecture.

Dr. Wayne Riser of Des Moines gave the members of the Jr. A.V.M.A. a very interesting speech on the "Ethics of Veterinary Medicine" at the meeting on March 3, 1944. He also gave the students a few tips on the ways to become a successful practitioner.

Motion pictures were the spotlight of the evening at the March 31 meeting. The first movie was a light and fantastic comedy while the second was an educational picture showing the characteristics of the South American countries.

Election of officers high-lighted the chapter meeting on April 21. Officers elected were Arthur Magnusson, '45, president-elect; Burnell Kingrey, '44, vice-president; Clifford Syverson, '45, secretary; Henry Wykoff, '46, sergeant-at-arms; and Jerold Jorgensen, '44, critic. At the close of the meeting retiring president Mac McMillan, '44, turned the gavel over to incoming president, John Gooch, '44.

Major Frank Miles, who is associated with the Iowa Selective Service System, gave the members of the Jr. A.V.M.A. a very interesting speech at the meeting on May 5, 1944. Major Miles spoke on "Shall We Go to Berlin and Tokyo?"