

Alumni News

Class of 1930

Robert M. Buck is retired from practice in Belle Fourche, South Dakota. Dr. Buck and his wife Lucille, have four children: Robert, Rosemary Geis, SuzAnne Howe, and LeeAnne Schmidt. He is an honor member of AVMA, member of SDVMA, Charter Member of Lion's Club, Honorary Member of Belle Fourche Chamber of Commerce, City Council member (1944-49), Agribusiness Person of the Year Award, and 1988 Parade Marshall of the Black Hills Round-up.

C. E. Treman is retired from from practice. Dr. Treman has been on the Calhoun County Conservation Board for 27 years.

Class of 1940

Lloyd F. Boxwell is a retired practitioner in Cedar Falls, Iowa. Dr. Boxwell worked briefly at Princeton, Illinois and for two years at Nashua. The rest of his practice career (1942-1982) was spent in Cedar Falls. He and his wife Margaret have three children, Roberta, Sandra and Donald.

Gerald E. Brandt is retired from a small animal practice and previous work with USDA Veterinary Services. Dr. Brandt and his wife Helen have five children; David, Thomas, Janice, Jean and Joan. He is a member of the Phi Zeta, Phi Kappa Phi and Gamma Sigma Delta fraternities. Dr. Brandt is also a member of the Fayette County Veterinary Association and a life member of the IVMA.

Elmer H. Braunworth retired in 1974 after 34 years with USDA/APHIS. Dr. Braunworth was also involved in brucellosis and tuberculosis eradication in Minnesota. He is an Honor Roll Member of the AVMA and the MVMA. Dr. Braunworth and his wife, Fern, have two daughters, Margo and Cheryl, and four grandchildren.

Evar T. Cedarleaf is currently retired from Cedarleaf, Cedarleaf, and Cedarleaf, a surety bond agency where he was employed for 37 years. Presently, Dr. Cedarleaf lives with his wife, J. Adelaide Moren, MD, in Lakeland, MN. They have three children, JoAnn, Mary and Susan. Dr. Cedarleaf was on the Malitomed School Board for five years, and over the years his has spent much time hunting, fishing, and camping.

Leon W. Cook is retired from general practice and is living in Largo, Florida. Dr. Cook was in general practice in Montgomery Iowa from 1940 to 1980. He is a life member of the IVMA. Dr. Cook and his wife, Judy, have two children, Marilyn and Janyce.

Ernest J Dahlquist is retired and lives in Fayette, Ia. He and his wife, Joyce, have four daughters: Carole, Connie, Ann and Aimee. Dr. Dahlquist is a past member of the IVMA Executive Board (10 years), 1980 recipient of the IVMA President's Award, past member and president of Fayette Community School Board, past member and secretary of the Upper Iowa University Board of Trustees (12 years), trustee of McElroy Trust Committee (Upper Iowa University), member of the administrative board and various committees of the United Methodist Church, past president of Fayette Community Club and a director of the State Bank of Fayette.

W. H. Dreher is retired and resides in Shawano, Wisconsin with his wife, Barbara. They have three children: Roger, Lorna and Marylin. Dr. Dreher is a member of the WVMA, the VMA of Northeast Wisconsin and the National Association of Animal Breeders. He has served as a trustee of the local church and on the Shawano School Board.

Orin Newton Emerson has received numerous awards for his dedication and involvement in the veterinary community. Among these awards are: Stange Award, IVMA's Presidents Award, Society of Gentle Doctors, Order of the Knoll, and Community College Trustee's State and Regional Awards to name a few. Dr. Emerson is currently retired after selling his practice to his brother and nephew, Drs. Wayne and Ronald Emerson. He has a son Raymond, and a daughter Mary Lynne.

James O. Foss retired from mixed practice in 1980. He and his wife, Mildred live in Minot, North Dakota. They have three children: Joellen, James, and Mary, and eight grandchildren. Dr. Foss is a lifetime member of the AVMA, the NDVMA, and Minot Kiwanis Club. He served on the local park board, the First Lutheran church council and was North Dakota Veterinarian of the year in 1978.

Ralph C. Hawk is retired and lives in Goose Lake, Iowa. Dr. Hawk and his wife Lucille have four children: Dennis, Sheldon, Rebecca and Rachel.

Eugene E. Moon served in the army from 1942 to 1945, and is retired from a position with the United States Department of Agriculture (1940-1973). He and his wife Alice live in Pittsfield, Illinois. They have three children: Melinda, Margaret Christine, and Stephen. Dr. Moon was a member of the Central Illinois Veterinary Association and the Northern Veterinary Association.

Melvin N. Nuckolls is semi-retired from a mixed animal practice in Oskaloosa, Iowa. He and his wife, Arlene, have two daughters: Pamela and Jill. Dr. Nuckolls career included time as city food inspector for Marshalltown, federal meat inspector at Cedar Rapids, US Army Veterinary Corps, and his private practice in Oskaloosa.

R. Allen Packer is currently a Distinguished Professor Emeritus in the Department of Microbiology in the College of Veterinary Medicine at Iowa State University. From 1940 to 1985 he was a professor in the Department of Microbiology and Preventive Medicine (department chair from 1952-1980). In 1985 he received the title of Distinguished Professor Emeritus. Dr. Packer and his wife Jean have five children: Ellen, Juliann, Sara, James and John.

John G. Salsbury and his wife, Doris, are now living in Bozeman, Montana. Dr. Salsbury retired in 1982 from chairman of Salsbury Laboratories, Inc., which manufactures animal health products. Dr. Salsbury has been involved in a wide variety of boards and organizations, including being Past Chairman of the American Egg Board (Poultry & Egg National Board), Past President of the American Poultry Historical Society, Past Director of the Board of Governors of Iowa State University Foundation, and Past President of the Chamber of Commerce, Charles City, Iowa. Dr. Salsbury has also received several honors including the Stange Award in Veterinary Medicine and an Alumni Medal, both from ISU. The Salsburys have five grown children. One son, Douglas, received his DVM in 1967.

Robert G. Sheumaker retired from a large animal practice in 1982. He is a member of the AVMA and IVMA, and also served on the City Council School Board, IVMA Executive Board, Woodbury Co. Board of Health, and other community boards. Dr. Sheumaker and his wife, Jean have four daughters: Susan, Ellen, Joan, and Nancy. The Sheumakers live in Danbury, Iowa.

Doyle W. Simonsen retired in 1985 after 40 years with Agribusiness and five years in a large animal practice. He has served as a trustee for the local hospital, on the school board, the board of Iowa Fertilizer and Chemical Associate (President '65), and on the Fertilizer Industry Advisory Committee to the Agronomy Department at ISU. He was also President of the Iowa Renderers Association. Dr. Simonsen and his wife, Margaret, live in Quimby, Iowa and have six children: Ann Drefke (husband, Ray DVM ISU '65), John, Mark, Karen, Kristin, and Kira.

Earl Dean Simonsen retired from practice in 1983. He and his wife, Betty, live in Quimby, Iowa. They have six children and ten grandchildren.

Robert Eugene Storm is retired from practice. He and his wife, Ella, live in Skokie, IL, and have two children. He has been a member of the AVMA, AAHA, CVMA, and ISVMA, and served on committees for both the ISVMA and CVMA, and is Past President of both CVMA and Evanston Kiwanis. He received a Veterinary Service Award in 1973 from ISVMA.

Lee C. Swain is retired from a large and mixed animal practice. He and his wife, Dorothy, live in Hot Springs Village, AR. They have three children: Marcia, Gary, and Lee. Dr. Swain is a member of the IVMA and is a Gold Star Member of the AVMA.

Edwin P. Taylor is a retired practitioner in Buckingham, Pennsylvania. Dr. Taylor and his wife, Elsie, have three children, Allen, Dana, and Robin.

Frederick D. Wertman is retired and living in Johnston, Iowa. Dr. Wertman was in general practice in Carlisle, Iowa until 1960 after which he was the executive director of the IVMA until retirement. He also served as executive secretary of the AASP, was a delegate to the AVMA, a member of the Professional Liability Trust of the AVMA, was president of the National Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners, and was on the AVMA Scientific Program Committee for 4 years. Dr. Wertman received the AVMA Award in 1979. He was also a member of the Board of Education for Carlisle Public Schools for 18 years, and a member of the executive board for the Carlisle Methodist Church. He and his wife Jo have three children, David, Janet, and Carol.

Class of 1950

Duane T. Albrecht is active in small animal practice at the Aspenwood Animal Hospital PC in Denver, Colorado. He and his wife, Elinor, have four children: Steven, Stanley, Susan, and Duane. A few of Dr. Albrecht's activities include Secretary of Colorado State Board Veterinary Medicine (1971-80), American Association of Veterinary State Boards President in 1975-76, National Board Examination Committee (1971-1987), and the AVMA Executive Board District IX Representative (1979-82). His honors include AVMA President (1983-84), "Featured Practice" in AAHA Trends Magazine, "Design Merit Award" in Veterinary Economics, AAHA Region IV Award for outstanding service to the veterinary profession, 1980 CVMA Veterinarian of the Year, Stange Award, and National Academy of Practice in Veterinary Medicine where he was installed as Distinguished Practitioner in 1986.

L. C. Allenstein is active in dairy practice in Whitewater Wisconsin, and a full time adjunct professor for the School of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Wisconsin - Madison. Dr. Allenstein was the Wisconsin Veterinarian of the Year in 1972, president of the AABP in 1975, received the Stange award in 1978, received the Meritorious award for the School of Agriculture - University of Wisconsin in 1979, was Bovine practitioner of the year in 1982, received the Amstutz-Williams Award from the AABP in 1989, and served on the committee for continuing education for the AVMA in 1989. He has served as a delegate to the AVMA (4 years), on the publication committee for the AVMA (6 years), and is currently advertising manager for the AABP. Dr. Allenstein's associates in practice are Dr. E F Engel, Dr. Mike Newell, Dr. Rick Halverson, Dr. Brian Miller and Dr. Carol Paczkowski. He and his wife Betty have three children, Steven, Scott, and Carla.

Leo Cahalan is a mixed animal practitioner in Logansport, Indiana. From 1950-1951 he was a member of the Wisconsin State Veterinarians Office of Disease Control. He is also a member of the IVMA, AVMA and has held all offices in the NWIVMA. Dr. Cahalan and his wife Betty have five children: Marilyn, Patty Jo, Tim, Carol, and Tom.

Walter W. Campbell is retired in Rogers, AR. He and his wife, Mary, have four children: Craig, Scott, Douglas, and Curtis. Dr. Campbell organized and was first president of the Northwest Arkansas Chapter of the National Association of Federal Veterinarians. He has also been active as a Boy Scout Leader, Little League Coach, and is a PTA Life Member.

J. J. Cecil is retired from a career in large animal practice and domestic and international industry. Dr. Cecil practiced large animal medicine from 1950 to 1974 and was a Swine Specialist with Solvay from 1975 to 1985 and worked in Europe, South America, and Asia, in addition to the United States. He and his wife, Maxine, have four children: James, Michael, Claudia, and Debra.

Herschel J. Chudomelka is active in a mixed animal practice at the Ozark Veterinary Clinic with his associate, Dr. Richard Linn (MO '83). Dr. Chudomelka and his wife, Ethel, live in Ozark, Missouri and have six children.

Alfred W. Cooper is active in a large animal practice in Seymour, Iowa. He and his wife, Barbara have four children: Bruce, David, Jane, and Neil. They have seven grandchildren. Dr. Cooper has served as a school board member and a Utility Trustee for Seymour. He also belongs to the IVMA and the Eastern Veterinary Medical Association.

D. H. Crawford is a government veterinarian. He has three children: Don Jr., Cheryl, and Caroline. Dr. Crawford resides in Blowing Rock, North Carolina.

Robert R. Dappen is the Inspector in Charge of Tama Meat Packing Corporation. He was chairman of the group instrumental in seeing brucellosis legislation passed in Iowa. He has been the Carroll County republican chairman, president of the school board in Mannine, Iowa, has received the USDA certificate of merit twice, and was the Iowa Veterinarian of the Year in 1955. Dr. Dappen and his wife Sara Ann have two children: Nicholas and Nathan.

Arthur W. Dobson retired from practice in 1961 and retired from the University of Missouri in 1983. He and his wife, Lela, reside in Columbia, Missouri. They have one daughter, Carol Dobson Graham. Dr. Dobson is active in local community activities and likes to travel in the United States and work in his yard.

Donald A. Fuller retired from active practice on February 1, 1990. The practice, Kinder's Pet Clinic was recently sold to Dr. Jayne Tabor, ISU '85. Dr. Fuller was President of the Indianola Lion's Club and of the Redeemer Lutheran Church Council. He and his wife, Janice, live in Indianola, Iowa. They have three sons: Allan, Mark, and Brian.

Edward A Gubser passed away in February of 1989. He is survived by his wife, Polly, now residing in Sun City West, Arizona, their three children, Kris, Karl and Kate, and seven grandchildren.

Robin M. Hacecky is retired from veterinary practice and living in Yankton, S.D. Dr. Hacecky and his wife Virginia have one child, Terry.

Robert E. Hall retired in 1985 from the Faculty of the University of Wisconsin and Wisconsin Extension. He and his wife, Kathryn, reside in Madison, Wisconsin. They have three children: David, Linda, and Robert and have five grandchildren. Dr. Hall started out in a mixed practice in Albany, MO (1950), worked at the State of Wisconsin Veterinary Diagnostic Lab (1951-1961) and as the University of Wisconsin Extension Veterinarian (1961-1984).

Robert E. Kline is retired from large animal practice. He and his wife, Thelma, reside in Lyons, Colorado. They have two daughters: Dr. Lucia Kline Miller, DVM and Bobette Kline Halliday, and have two grandchildren.

Harry E. Koeppen is a semi-active small animal practitioner in Bloomington, Indiana. He is a member of the CIVMA, IVMA, AVMA and AAHA. In addition, he is active in the Masonic lodge, Shrine, American legion, Methodist church, the United Fund and the local humane association. Dr. Koeppen and his wife Virginia "Pat" have two daughters: Julie and Susan, and one granddaughter.

Merlin E. Macheak is retired from Veterinary Service Laboratories. Dr. Macheak is an AVMA Honor Roll Member. He resides in Rogers, Arizona with his wife, Viola.

Robert E. Misner has retired from 30 years of general practice at Belmond, Iowa. He and his wife, Eleanor Rundell, have two children, Robert and Deborah, and five grandchildren. Dr. Misner has received an ISU Alumni Community Service Award. He served in city government for ten years (he was mayor for six years) and in the local volunteer fire department for ten years.

Max G. Pool is retired and living in Creston, Iowa. Dr. Pool was in large animal practice at Mt. Ayr, Iowa until 1971, and then worked for the State of Iowa as an area veterinarian from 1974 to 1981. He and his wife, Mae, have three children, Mrs. Jean Bernhardt, Dr. Sharon Pool, and Mrs. Mark Bak. The Pools live on a farm near Creston, Iowa and spend the winters in Tuscon, Arizona.

Kenneth N. Randolph is retired from active practice and living in Lost Nation, Iowa. He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, EIVA, ISUVMAA and the ISUAA. Dr. Randolph has been involved in numerous community organizations such as elder, trustee and deacon of the Presbyterian Church, member of the City Council and the Bank Advisory Council. He is the recipient of the Citizen of the Year Award, and the Honorary Future Farmer Award. He and his wife Carmaleta have three children, Joy, Jody and Kerry

Anthony W. Riepma and his wife, Helen, currently reside in Amarillo, TX. Dr. Riepma retired from the U.S. Army Veterinary Corp in 1973 and went on to serve as a USDA meat inspector that same year.

Ben F. Schlegel practiced privately for ten years after graduation. In 1960, he joined the ranks of Eli Lilly & Co.. He became involved in poultry medicine in 1965 and is currently Senior Research Scientist at Eli Lilly in Research and Technical Service in Avian Medicine. Dr. Schlegel and his wife, Mary, reside in Fayetteville, Arkansas. They have five children: Bruce, Carolyn, Liz, Ben Jr. and Laura Ann.

Ronald E. Severson is retired from active practice. He was President of the Board of Health, Vice-president and Assistant Treasurer of Rotary Club, and a member of St. John's ALC. Dr. Severson received the LeMars Chambers Agricultural Service Award. He has two children: Gregory and Susan.

Charles M. Towers is active in a small animal practice in Marion, Iowa. He and his wife, Betty, have six children: James, Mark, Greg, David, Jon, and Janet. Dr. Towers moved to the Marion area five and a half years ago after practicing nine years in Illinois, one year in Pine City, Minnesota, and 24 years in Wyoming, ID.

R. W. Urbatsch and his associate, Dr. W. Lawson (ISU '45) are active in a mixed animal practice in Albert Lea, MN. He is involved in the local government and is a member of the local Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Fern, are also active in their church community. They have four children and four grandchildren. Dr. Urbatsch enjoys hunting and fishing.

Thomas R. Weatherly is retired from practice and lives with his wife, Marie, in Oakland, NE. They have one son, John. Dr. Weatherly has been active in the AVMA, NVMA, AAEP, and AASP. He received the VFW Distinguished Service Award and has served as chairman of his local church board, a 4-H leader, past vice-president of community development, and is still serving as the county supervisor. His associates were H.R. Blanc (CSU '54), Gordon Miller (ISU '60), James Cummings, (ISU '71) and A.L. Hanson (MSU '50).

Roland Winterfield resides with his wife, Patricia, in West Lafayette, Indiana where he is currently Professor Emeritus at Purdue University. Prior to establishing himself in Indiana, he was a research professor in poultry diseases at the University of Massachusetts and co-owned a poultry vaccine company. He is a member of numerous organizations including: AVMA, AAAP, Poultry Science Association, World Poultry Science Association, World Poultry Veterinarians Association, Indiana State Poultry Association and ACVM diplomate. Dr. Winterfield was president of the AAAP and the Syncarnate Audubon Society. His honors include AAAP Research Award of the Year, Indiana State Poultry Association Golden Egg Award, Gamma Sigma Delta Award for distinguished service in agriculture, First Purdue Alumni Faculty Award for Excellence, and elected Fellow of the Poultry Science Association.

Ann Gull-Clemons

Iowa State University Veterinarian