

Who's There and Where

CONSTRUCTED CRANFORD APARTMENTS

Miss Alda Wilson, who writes for this issue of the Iowa Homemaker on interior decoration, graduated from the Civil engineering department in 1895. She is the sister of Mrs. Charles Curtiss, and is now living in Ames doing home architectural work.

After graduation from Iowa State, Miss Wilson went to Chicago as a draughtsman. Later she graduated from the Boston School of Technology in architecture and then worked for a number of years as an architect in New York. At a number of times she traveled in Europe, studying architecture and designing.

Miss Wilson built Miss Maria Roberts' home, and recently reconstructed it for the Mohawk fraternity. She also designed and constructed the Cranford Apartments.

NEWS FROM KAY SHULTZ

Katheryn Schultz, '22, writes from Tokepa Kansas, where she has been teaching foods and having charge of the college cafeteria:

"I expect you are all getting ready to study for finals. They are here too. Regular classes are over this week and next week is devoted to final exams. I teach my last college class this afternoon, except for my classes in summer school. Next year I'm not going to teach at all. I am to have charge of the cafeteria and the dining room and kitchen in Benton Hall, the new women's dormitory.

Am teaching cooking and sewing in summer school besides running the cafeteria, and I will be here until August 8."

MISS MURPHY TO STUDY AT COLUMBIA NEXT FALL

Miss Eda Lord Murphy, head of the institutional tea room, will not be here during the coming fall. She expects to study at Columbia University, New York City. Miss Murphy will be on the faculty of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville during both of the summer school sessions. She has not resigned from the Iowa State faculty, but expects to return later in the year.

HARRIMAN-SUTTON

The announcement has just been made of the marriage of Dorothy May Harriman to Walter Merwyn Sutton on April 28. Mrs. Sutton is the daughter of Mrs. W. E. Harriman of Ames and granddaughter of former Senator W. F. Harriman. The Rev. H. E. Harned, fraternity brother of the groom, performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Raymond Curtis Jones of Clinton.

Mrs. Sutton attended Monticello seminary and graduated in March, 1923, from the Home Economics Department of Iowa State.

Mr. Sutton who graduated from the Mechanical Engineering division of Iowa State, is now with the Western Electric Company of Chicago.

After the first of June Mr. and Mrs. Sutton will be at home at 5956 Fulton Street, Chicago.

EMMA BOYD JONES VISITS AMES

Mrs. Emma Boyd Jones of the class of '92, whose home is in Chicago, spent several days in Ames with her mother, who was threatened with pneumonia. Mrs. Jones has three children. Clyde, Jr., completes his sophomore year at Yale and Helen enters Smith in the fall. Clarence, the youngest of the three, will begin preparatory school at Hill School, Tottstown, Pa.

Mrs. Jones, while in Ames, entertained some of her old college friends at the Maples—Mrs. Beardshear, Mrs. Minta Tilden Macey, Mrs. Julia Stanton, and three of her own classmates, Miss Kittie B. Freed, Mrs. Jennie Morrison Beyer, and Prof. L. B. Spinney.

RETURNS TO JAPAN IN THE FALL

Mrs. Minta Tilden Macey, whose husband is doing engineering work in Japan, where she and her children were last year, is now living in Ames. Mr. Macey will sail for the United States, June 8. Their daughter will continue her studies at Iowa State when they return to Japan in the fall.

DEAN HARWOOD ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT

Hazel M. Harwood, dean of women, acted as hostess at a party given at her home on the campus recently, where she announced before her many friends her engagement to Dr. H. E. Beemis, vice dean of the veterinary division.

During the party a tea wagon literally buried in premier roses was ushered into the midst of the guests, and Verna Hunter, H. Ec. '23 was, asked to read the diploma that was concealed in the bed of fragrance. The diploma told of Dean Harwood's completion of a four year course as dean of women at Iowa State, and announced her engagement to Dr. Beemis.

Among the guests present were the chaperones and one member from each sorority and dormitory, the Woman's Guild board, and the housing committee.

Dean Harwood came to Iowa State four years ago from Columbia University. Before this she had attended the University of Illinois, where she had also acted as an instructor and sorority chaperone.

TO CONDUCT EUROPEAN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert (Joe and Velsar), class of '90, will conduct another party to Europe this summer.

June Wallace, whose home is in Minneapolis spent several weeks in Ames.

Miss Edith Thomas of the applied arts department has recently accepted the position of the head of the arts department at Purdue next year.

Elizabeth Peterson, '23, has signed a contract with the Pocohontas High school to teach Home Economics and direct the orchestra.

MORTAR BOARD AND JACK O'LANTERN PLEDGE

At the spring pledging of Mortar Board and Jack O'Lantern the following girls were pledged:

Jack O'Lantern: Paula Braunlick, Mildred Boyt, Helen Oldham, Mary Reed, Reva Pierce, Nelle Taylor, Pauline May, Margaret Brookhart, Georgia Easter, Agnes Noble, Doris Anderson, Josephine McMullen, Alma Boyce, Nancy Elliot, Helen Keller, Leorra Porter, Agnes Crane.

Mortar Board: Dorothy Cass, Marcella Dewell, Mary Heald, Claire Youngclass, Medora Grandprey, Katherine Goeppinger, Jean MacFarland, Helen, Herr, Llyra Price.

BIG SISTER CHIEF ELECTED

Helen Oldham was elected Big Sister Chief for the next fall with Mary Reid as Assistant Chief. Helen was a member of freshman commission, president of the sophomore council, secretary of Women's Guild, and active in Y. W. C. A.

WOMEN ADMITTED TO CARDINAL

The Cardinal Guild is now an all college representative body. Six women have recently been admitted to membership: two representatives from Women's Guild, one from the Y. W. C. A., the president of the Home Economics club, a representative from Women's Athletic fraternity and one from the Iowa Homemaker staff.

THETA SIGMA PHI INITIATES

Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalistic fraternity for woman, announces the initiation of Ruth Elaine Wilson, and Mildred Boyt.

Verna Hunter, president of the Women's Guild this year, was elected May Queen.