Dear Hope,

Yes as long as you take into account the 3 year embargo after the date of publication.

Dr. Peeters,

Thank you for getting back to me. So we can include the published version in our repository so long as we place it under a three year embargo?

Best,

Hope

Dear Ms Craft,

Collection Latomus is not an open access publication. If you wish to include the article in an open-access repository you have to take into account an embargo period of 3 years after date of publication.

Or if you wish to publish the article in open access sooner and before this 3 years period, you will have to pay an open access fee of 50 Euro per page.

Kind regards
Paul Peeters

Onderwerp: Permissions Request

Permissions Specialist,

I work for the Iowa State University Library and I have been working with Dr. David Hollander to get their scholarship deposited in our institutional repository, Iowa State University Digital Repository. Dr. Hollander is a contributing author to the below publications and I am writing for permission to deposit portions of their work in our repository.

- “Lawyers, Friends, and Money: Portfolios of Power in the Late Republic” in Money and Power in the Roman Republic. Edited by H. Beck, M. Jehne, and J. Serrati, Collection Latomus 355 (2016) 18 – 25.

Iowa State University Digital Repository is a non-commercial institutional repository that provides access to the scholarship of Iowa State University’s faculty, students and staff. This scholarship is made available for personal, educational and research use. All publications deposited in the repository are described with complete bibliographic information for the original publication and includes an explicit statement identifying the date and owner of copyright.

Please let me know if we have permission to deposit their publications in our repository. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,

Hope Craft
