

Alumni News

Class of 1960

M. W. Anders is active in Research at the Univ. of Rochester, School of Medicine and Dentistry, Rochester, N.Y. where he is also professor and chairman of the Dept. of Pharmacology. He and his wife, Laurie have three children. In 1964, Dr. Anders received his Ph.D. from the Univ. of Minnesota. From 1965-69, he was an Associate Professor at Cornell University, Ithaca. From 1969-82, he was an Associate and Full Professor at the Univ. of Minnesota. Since 1982 he has been at Rochester, School of Medicine and Dentistry.

Elden W. Bainbridge left practice in 1974 to concentrate on real estate investments. He and his wife, Sharon have four children: Dwight, Brian, Todd, and Marla. Dr. Bainbridge was active in the Southern California VMA and CVMA. He recently formed the Christian Fellowship Foundation for religious, charitable and educational purposes.

George L. Balster is the Hospital Director at Bethany Animal Hospital in Sycamore, Illinois. Dr. Balster is President of the DeKalb County Board of Health and a member of the AVMA, AAHA, and IVMA. His associates are Dr. Mike Schelkopf (IL '78), Dr. Charles Schelkopf (IL '81), Dr. Deb Schelkopf (IL '78), Dr. Karen Scheeper (ISU '85), and Dr. Pat Drone (IL '88). Dr. Balster and his wife, Beverly have two children, Steve and Jennifer. They reside in Dekalb, IL. He is active in the Kiwanis Club and Barb Booster Club.

Dr. Gail L. Blaser (Dykstra) is retired from the small animal practice owned jointly with her husband, Edward Kykstra (ISU '66). She is a member of the AVMA and SCVMA and is active in PTA, Youth Soccer and Church. Dr. Blaser and her husband have two sons, Christopher and Andrew and they reside in Laguna, Niguel, CA.

Fred Branco is retired and acts as pastor for the Puxico-Lake Wappapello United Methodist Church. He and his wife Shirley live in Puxico, MO. They have two children, David and Stephen. Dr. Branco was a veterinary supervisor for the USDA for 15 years, and has been a pastor for five years.

James L. Carpenter is active in a small animal practice, the Angelle Memorial Animal Hospital (AMAH) in Boston, MA. He is a Diplomate, ACVP; head of the Department of Pathology at AMAH; Associate Professor of Comparative Pathology, Harvard Medical School. Dr. Carpenter has published over 50 professional manuscripts and is the author of the tumor chapter in the textbook, "Diseases of the Cat" by J. Holyworth.

John A. Carson is active in a seven person large animal practice. He and his wife, Nita have four daughters and three grandchildren. Dr. Carson is a member and past officer of the Rock Valley Veterinary Medical Association, member and past director of the WVMA, and member of the AVMA, AABP, and NMC. He is also a member of the United Methodist Church, F & AM Broknell Lodge #94, and several conservation organizations.

Robert I. Challoner is retired from practice. He and his wife Sandra live in Oshkosh, WI. They have three children: Laurel, Craig, and Scott. Dr. Challoner is a member of the Fox Valley Association, Northeast Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association (Past President), WVMA, and AVMA.

Walter A. Christensen is currently Regional Director for South Central Animal Care with the USDA. He and his wife, Yun hui have five children: Clark(27), Dana (25), Chad (20), Dean (11), David (8), the family lives in Benbrook, Texas. Dr. Christensen was in large animal practice for twenty years.

Keith C. Cogley is active in a mixed and race horse practice. He has 8 children. Dr. Cogley has served as president of the local school board.

James R. Collins is active in mixed animal practice with a special interest in bovine embryo transfer. He has three associates, Dr. Rich Collins (ISU '70), Dr. Bill Kuhfus (ISU '73), and Dr. Sharon Seneczko (IL '89). Dr. Collins and his wife, Ellabeth have three children. He is past president of the Mississippi Valley Veterinary Medical Association; member of the Cattle Disease Research Committee, part of the Illinois Department of Agriculture; Chairman of the Certification Committee of the American Embryo Transfer Association

Dwight B. Coulter is Associate Dean for Academic Affairs for the University of Georgia College of Veterinary Medicine. He is a member of the Georgia Veterinary Medical Association, AVMA, Phi Zeta. American Physiology Society, ASVPP, Past President AAVMC, and member of the Lutheran Church. He and his wife, Lorrie, have two sons, Scott and Grant.

F.D. Gipple is active in mixed animal practice with Dr. Paul M. Klopfenstein (ISU '80). He and his wife, Betty, live in Crawfordsville, Iowa and had two daughters, Cindy (age 33) and Coleen (deceased).

Ken Hook retired in 1986 after 27 years with Veterinary Services, USDA. He served as Director of NVSL in Ames for three years and Associate Deputy Administrator of Veterinary Services in Washington, D.C. for four years. He is a member of the IVMA and the National Association of Federal Veterinarians. Dr. Hook and his wife, Lee have two children, Sue Ann and David, and one grandson, Talbot.

G. F. Kennedy is active in food animal practice with his associates, Dr. G. D. Spronk (MN '81) and Dr. Jay Bobb (ISU '90). Dr. Kennedy is active in community education and banking activities. He has been involved with sheep production and health, as well as cattle export projects. He and his wife, Kay have four children.

Thomas J. Lensing is active in large animal practice with his associates, Dr. A. J. Cotten (TAM '53) and Dr. T. J. Struecker (ISU '73). Dr. Lensing is a member of the IVMA Executive Board, AVMA, and AASP. He is involved with many city, county and church offices including Mayor of Whitemore, IA for four terms. He and his wife, Marilyn have seven children.

Gary L. Mallo is active in a small animal practice at the St. Charles Veterinary Clinic with his associates Dr. James Miles (MO '80), Dr. Christine Sticklandf (MO '85), Dr. Thomas Favale (IA '88). The clinic was named Hospital of the Year in 1977 by Veterinary Economics. After graduation, Dr. Mallo practiced at the Riser Animal Hospital in Skokie, IL until 1963. From 1963 to 1969, he obtained his masters degree from ISU as an assistant professor of Clinical Medicine. He is a member of the AVMA, ILVMA, and AAHA. Dr. Mallo and his wife, Penny have four children: Michael, Jane, Paul, and Kathryn.

Kenneth H. McKenzie is active in a predominantly large animal practice in Burke, SD. He and his wife, Mardis have six children: Kim, Mark, Kenneth, Jacquelyn, Matthew, and David. They have six grandchildren. Dr. McKenzie is a member of the SDVMA, AVMA, Interstate VMA, AABP, AASP, and the Society for Theriogenology.

Charles C. Meshek is a small animal practitioner in Urbandale, IA with his associate, Dr. Mark F. Schmidt (IA '84). He has served on the IVMA Executive, Judicial and Public Relations committees. Dr. Meshek was the Iowa Veterinarian of the Year in 1983. He and his wife, Janice have two children, David and Karen.

James T. Palmer is active in a mixed animal practice at the Quad County Veterinary Clinic with his associate, Dr. Joseph Griffioen (IA '85). He and his wife, Ruth have three children: John, James, and Catherine. Dr. Palmer is active in the Rotary Club, Methodist Church, Wellman Coop Telephone, Washington County Cattlemen Association, and many state committees.

Lowell H. Roberts has been with the USDA in Yakima, WA since 1984. From 1960 to 1984, Dr. Roberts practiced in Corning, IA. He and his wife, Kay have two children, Elizabeth and Christopher.

Roger L. Schladeizky is active in a large animal practice with his associate, Dr. Terrance Petesch (IA '78), at the Bellevue Veterinary Clinic. He and his wife, Eunice have three children: Brian, Brenda, and Robert. He is active in the Bellevue Rotary Club, Lutheran Church, IVMA, AVMA, AABP, Jackson County VMA, and the Eastern IA VMA.

Roy A. Schultz is active as a veterinary swine consultant and a clinical professor at the University of IL in the IFAMS program. His associates at the Avoca Veterinary Clinic are Dr. Jim Hoffmann (IA '82) and his son, Dr. Gary Schultz (IA '85). Dr. Schultz is currently President of the IVMA Foundation. He is past President of the AASP, ISU Veterinary Medical Alumni Association, and the Foundation for North American Wild Sheep. Dr. Schultz has received the ISU Stange Award, Swine Practitioner of the Year in 1986, Honorary Master Pork Producer, the Gamma Sigma Delta Award of Merit, the Order of Knoll, and Gentle Doctor. He has three children: Gary, Kathy, and Kent.

E. Dean Stocker is active in a large animal practice at the Albia Animal Clinic with his associates, Dr. Howard Lindaman (IA '71) and Dr. Greg Mobley (IA '80). He and his wife, Mary have five children: Diane, Carol, Nancy, Dan, and Norman. They have one grandchild. Dr. Stocker is the Chamber of Commerce President, school board Vice President, and Rotary President. He is a member of the AVMA and IVMA. He is the church board chairman and a Sunday School teacher. He has received the 4-H Alumni Award.

Wendell E. Taylor is semi-retired and working part-time at the small animal practice in Seminole, FL which he sold in June, 1990. After graduation, he practiced three years in Oak Lawn, IL. He practiced in Marshalltown, IA until 1971, when he moved to Seminole. Dr. Taylor is a member of the AVMA, FVMA, Oakhurst United Methodist Church, and the Seminole Federal Savings Bank. He is director of the Rotary Club of Seminole, past-president of the Pinellas County VMA, and past-director of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Marge have three children: Eric, Laurie, and Brent.

Robert L. Treinen is a large animal practitioner in Ackley, IA. He and his wife, Sharon have three children: Ann, Carol, and David. Dr. Treiner is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, AASP, and the Ackley City Council.

Paul Terry Watts is active in meat and poultry inspection with the USDA in Washington, D.C. After graduation, he practiced in central IA for six years. In 1971, he became involved in international meat and poultry inspection which included an assignment in New Zealand from 1973 to 1975. Dr. Watts is a member of the AVMA, NAFV, and the D.C. Academy of Veterinary Medicine. He is involved in civic, church, and community activities. He and his wife, Elaine have four children: Stephanie, Tod, Jill, and Susan and one grandchild. Dr. Watts and his wife reside in Aldie, VA.

Dr. Wilcke is active in a mixed animal practice in Walcott, IA. He is a member of the AVMA, an Executive Board member of the IVMA, and was Past-President of the Eastern IA VMA. Dr. Wilcke has held positions on the City Council, Calvary United Methodist Church, Planning and Zoning, and the Community Club. He and his wife, Ruth have two children, Robert and Monica.

Byron K. Winter is active in a mixed animal practice in Seward, NE. He and his wife, Glenra have four children: Cynthia, Bruce, Robin, and David. Dr. Winter is a member of the AVMA, NVMA, City Council, Board of Education, and the Kiwanis.

Edward C. Winter is active as a U.S.D.A. and FSIS Circuit Supervisor in Iowa City. He practiced in Clarinda, IA for 25 years. He is involved in many community activities. Dr. Winter and his wife, Carole have four children: Susan, Christopher, Nancy and Cathy.

Class of 1970

Rich Collins is active in a 5-person, mixed animal practice where he concentrates on cattle and swine. He and his wife, Beth have two children: Greer (17) and Janine (13). He has been active in the AABP, AASP, ISVMA, foundation board of Saul Valley Community College, and is an elder in the First Presbyterian Church in Dixon, IL. His associates include James Collins (ISU '60), Bill Kuhfus (ISU '72), Sharon Senecko (IL '89), and Kevin Skibbe (IL '88).

David L. Fell is active in a two-person, mixed practice in Jackson, MN. He and his wife, Barb, have two children: Brian (17) and Betsy (15). He is a member of the IVMA, AVMA, and was MVMA chairman of the Veterinary Technician Committee for four years. He has been an alderman in Jackson for four years, and mayor for 8 years. For two years, he has advised the Luther League. His associate is John R. Tobola (ISU '58).

John Pat Glenn of Guthrie Center, IA, has been disabled since 1976 and is no longer actively practicing. He has two children, Jeremy (18) and Erin (16). He spent three years in the U.S. Army at Ft. McPherson, GA. He then practiced with small animals and horses in Wickenburg, AZ in 1973-74. In late 1974, he started a mixed practice in Guthrie Center.

Peter S. Haberly is active in a mobile equine practice in Oviedo, FL. His wife, Sara, is deceased, and his step-son Lloyd Willoz is 33 years old. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Seminole Co. Humane Society in 1981, and is currently vice president of the Friends of the St. Johns River. He is a member of the AVMA, FVMA, AEP, and IVAS. He has received a certificate from the Center for Chinese Medicine in 1983.

David Hahn is active in a 4-person, food animal practice at Waukon, IA. He and his wife Suzanne have three children: Jennifer (21), David (18), and Julie (13). He has been a member of the IVMA, AVMA, and AABP. He is also director of the Waukon State Bank and is elder in the First Presbyterian Church. His associates are Craig Phipps (ISU '78), Rod Smed (ISU '83), and Mike Knezevich (ISU '73).

Robert K. (Bob) Holveck is currently active in a 90% small animal and 10% large animal practice. Dr. Holveck and his wife Karla, also a 1970 graduate from ISU in Home Ec Education reside in Newberg, Oregon and have four children. Dr. Holveck has been president of the local county veterinary medical association for two years. He has also been a member of the County Board of Health for ten years; a member of Kiwanis and a high school Coop Ed Advisor.

Richard D. Howie is active in a mixed practice at the Henry County Veterinary Hospital at rural Mount Pleasant, Iowa. Dr. Howie has three children: Andrew (18), Jonathan (17), and Katherine (14).

David M. Iverson is active in a primarily large animal mixed practice with his associates: Gordon Hammon (MN '68), John Bowron (MN '71), and Kay Burkhart (ISU '79). Dr. Iverson and his wife Linda have two children-Todd (24), and Heather (17). Since graduation, he has been active in SWMNVMA, MNVMA, AVMA, AABP AND AASP, has been a director of the Luverne Chamber of Commerce and has held several offices at Grace Lutheran Church, Luverne.

Jim Jordan is active in a mixed animal practice in Boone, IA with Dr. D. C. Gustafson (ISU 69). Prior to going to Boone in 1976, Dr. Jordan practiced in Gowrie, IA. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA, AASP, and CIVMA. He is a member of AVMA, IVMA, AASP and CIVMA. Dr. Jordan and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters: Jennifer (16), and Jessica (13).

Larry Koehn is active in a poultry science practice with fellow Iowa Stater Jack Feldman ('74) at Jewell, IA. Besides his involvement in professional associations such as the AVMA, IVMA, AASP, and AAAP, Dr. Koehn is also active in public library management, rural health care, food pantry development and the Lutheran Church board. He and wife Kristine have three children: Hans (16), Katie (14), and Sam (11).

Keith W. Leonard is active in a mixed animal practice in Atlantic, IA. Dr. Leonard is past president of the Cass County ISU Alumni Association, past president of the Southwest Iowa Veterinary Medicine Association, Chairman of the Eagle Scout Board of review, president of the Atlantic Right to Life, past chairman of Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church pastoral Council, chairman of the "Atlantic Chamber of Commerce Legislative Committee, and president for 1990 of the Atlantic Boosters.

Tim Lucas is active in a mixed practice in Pella, IA with associates Kendall Johnson (KSU

'83), and Tim Yoder (KSU '88). He and his wife, Joan have two sons: Ted(19), and Jeff(17). Dr. Lucas is a member of IVMA, AVMA, IMVMA, E. IA VA, Rotary(past president), Tulip Time Steering Committee, and is the present president of the Pella Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Community Affairs Committee.

Admund R. McGuire is a federal meat inspector for the U.S.D.A, a position he has held for 18 years. With wife Jessie, who is also a federal meat inspector, Dr. McGuire has two stepchildren, Brad (30), and JoEllen (28), and three children: Mike (20), Chad (18), and Jill (12).

D. Scott McKinley is active in a mixed animal practice located in Milton, Wisconsin. He and his wife, Nora have two children: Anne (15) and Scott(14). Dr. McKinley's activities involve him in the Rock Valley and Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Associations, the AVMA, and the Wisconsin Animal Welfare Committee.

James E. McNutt has been active in a mixed animal and equine practice in West Branch, IA since after completing an equine internship at Purdue University in 1970-'71. He and his wife Roxanne have two children Alana (5) and Ashton (3). Dr. McNutt's activities include participation in the district and regional veterinary associations, AABP and AAEP.

Barbara H. Miller is active in a mixed animal practice (primarily dairy) in Viola, WI. She and husband Cecil have two children: Debbie (19) and Glenn (17). She is active in the CVMA, WVMA, AVMA, AABP and AASGP and is kept extremely busy by her practice.

Thomas A. Neuzil is executive director of the IVMA and Executive Secretary of the AASP. Aside from the IVMA and AASP, Dr. Neuzil is a member of AVMA, Eastern IA VMA, Greater Des Moines VMA and the Southwest IA VMA. He and wife, Donna have a son, Philip (20).

Denny Passman is owner and director of an AAHA clinic in Fort Pierce, FL. He and wife, Chris have two children: Todd (17) and Jodi (15). He is an active member of AAHA, FVMA, AVMA, Rotary Club and is an Elder in the Presbyterian Church.

Dale Risius is active in a mixed practice in Eldridge, IA. He and wife Nancy have three children: Stephanie (16), Eric (14), and Abigail (8). He is a member of Quad City VMA, Eastern IA VMP, IVMA, AVMA, AASP, AABP and the Society for Theriogenology. His associate is Fred Mulch (IL '80).

David A. Rybott is active in a mixed practice in Barnard, MO. Over half of his practice is devoted to large animal. He and his wife Karen have three children: Mike (16), Dana (13), and Ryan (5). He is active in AVMA, Missouri VMA, IVMA, AASP, AABP, Society for Theriogenology and is a member and current President of the Christian Church Board. He is an associate of Dr. Harold Hayden.

Charles L. Schnack is active in a mixed practice which is predominantly small animal. He and wife, Judith Ann have five children: Tamara Jo, Montgomery, Charles, Sarah, and Jennifer. He is mayor protem of the Audubon City Council, which he has served upon for twelve years. He is a member of the Bovine Practitioners Committee and is a member of the IVMA.

Mark Schulz is actively practicing in Hartley, IA. He and wife, Susan have three children: Christopher (14), Todd (12) and Sarah (10). He is very active in several veterinary organizations as well as church and community groups.

Joe Seng is a small animal practitioner at Whitehaven Animal Hospital in Davenport. He has been there for 20 years. He has one child, Heidi Anne (8). He is currently Vice President of the IVMA and is an associate of Dave Brown (ISU), Mike O'Banion and Billee Rindsig (both ISU '88) and Dawn Bromley (IL '89).

Robert L. Snakenberg is active in a mixed practice in Iowa City. He and his wife, Myrna have a 16 year old son, Matt. Dr. Snakenberg is active in the IVMA, AVMA and the Eastern Iowa VMA. He practices with Allen N. Lang ('44), J. R. Kennedy ('57), David J. Nyren ('75), William W. Gay ('80), and Teresa A. Strait ('90), all of ISU.

Dennis E. Sorensen is actively involved in a small animal practice at Morningside Vet Hospital in Sioux City. He and wife, Dianne have two daughters: Heather (10) and Crystal (3). He is a current member of the AVMA and AAHA and is on the Small Animal Committee IVMA. In addition, he has served on the Board of Directors of the Sioux City Humane Society for ten years. His associate is Dr. Steven Hemmingsrad (ISU '75).

Joseph R. Sutton is an active small animal practitioner in Manitoba, WI. After seven years in Chicago, he purchased this practice in 1977. He and wife, Lori have an 18 month old daughter named Shannon. He is a member of IVMA, CVMA, WVMA, New VMA and is a member of the American Association of Feline Practitioners. Dr. Sutton is also active in Raptor Rehab. He is associates with Dr. P. L. Schipper (MSU '73) and Dr. P. Nelson (NC State '90).

Farol Tomson is active in Lab Animal Medicine at the University of Florida in Gainesville. He has three children: Eric (15), Elizabeth (17), and Farol Jr. who entered the Univ. of FL this fall. He is board certified in Lab Animal Medicine and is currently the University Veterinarian at the Univ. of FL.

Class of 1980

Steve Anderson is active in a mixed practice in Tehachapi, CA. He and his wife Nanci have three children: Matthew(8), Eric(6), and Betsy(4). Currently Dr. Anderson is a member of the CVMA, AVMA, KCVMA and is president of the Rotary Club of Tehachapi.

Robert W. Bledsoe is a small animal practitioner in Austin, TX. He is currently the owner of Wells Branch Pet and Bird Clinic, South Branch Pet and Bird Clinic and Central Austin Pet and Bird Clinic. One of his associates is Gary N. Smastick (ISU '80).

Allen (Rusty) Brady is presently an assistant professor in comparative medicine at the University of S. Alabama, College of Medicine. His area of research interest is in primate perinatology/reproduction. He and his wife, Nancy, have a son born March 7, 1989.

David Calderwood is an active practitioner and owner of a mixed practice in Casselton, ND.

He and his wife, June, have a son Matthew(10) and daughter, Nicole(8).

William T. Carlisle is a small animal practitioner, and a manager of an emergency clinic in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Dr. Carlisle is president of Southeast Tricounty Vet. Med. Association. One of his associates, William Janecke, is an ISU alumni, '87. Dr. Carlisle and his wife, Becky Jo, have two children, Jennifer(7) and Holly(5).

Chris Chase is active in research with USDA-ARS at Laramie, Wyoming. Dr. Chase and his wife, Mary have four children: Christopher (7), Stephanie (5), Erin (4), and Jennifer (2). He practiced large animal medicine at Viborg, South Dakota during 1980-1985. He was also a member of the Viborg City Council. He received his M.S. in 1987 and PhD in 1990 from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He received the UW Research Award in 1988 and also the Burr Beach Award, WVMA. He is a member of the AABP, AASRP, WVMA, and the AVMA.

Mary M. Christopher is currently an assistant professor at the University of Florida, in Clinical Pathology. Dr. Christopher completed both her PhD and postdoctoral associate at the University of Minnesota in 1988-1989.

Cynthia S. Cook is currently involved in part time clinical practice, specializing in ophthalmology and part time research at the University of CA, San Fransisco. She and her husband Paul have twin girls, Rachel and Paige, born Aug. 9, 1989.

Janyce L. Cornick is currently involved in teaching and research in anesthesiology at Texas A & M, after completing her residency in Anesthesiology from Texas A & M in 1989.

Gary E. Eiben is active in a large animal practice in Edgewood, Iowa with his associates, Dr. Ken Wulfekuhle (ISU '73) and Dr. Mark Hauser (ISU '85). He and his wife, Katie have four children: Nathan (14), Melissa (12), Sarah (9), and Joshua (6). He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, EIVMA, AABP, AASP, and an active member of the Edgewood Chamber of Commerce.

Mark J. Engle is an active mixed animal practitioner in Audubon, IA, with his associates, DR. Daryl Olsen (ISU), Dr. Steve Schmitz (ISU '86), and Dr. Bob Bloome (ISU '90). He is currently president of the Audubon Country Club and the Cyclone Club district 3. He and his wife Bobbi have 2 children: Kylie (10) and son Kelsey (7).

Robert W. Evelsizer is a partner in the Fairmont Veterinary Clinic, in Fairmont, MN. He is a member of the AASP, and the Minnesota Veterinary Medical Association. Dr. Evelsizer and his wife, Gwen, have three children, Stephen (age 9), Sara (age 7), and Andrew (age 2).

David L. Hahn is an active mixed animal practitioner in Canton, IL. Dr. Hahn is active in AVMA, ISUMA, AAEP, and AASP. He and his wife Angela have 3 children: Josh (11), Erin (5), and Alisha (3).

Vergil Heyer is an active mixed animal practitioner in Ainsworth, NE. Dr. Heyer is currently a member of NVMA, AVMA, and AABP. He and his wife Lynne have a daughter Saige (5).

Patricia M. Hogan began her career in a small animal practice in Massachusetts, then entered and completed a radiology residency at the U. of Missouri and is currently an assistant professor of radiology at the Atlantic Veterinary College. She and her husband Dr. Mark Novotny have two children, Jennifer (7) and Stephanie (6 mos.).

Scott Huse is currently employed by Pfizer in Cedar Rapids, IA. He is a member of AABP, AASP, AVMA, IVMA, and several wildlife foundations. He and his wife Judy have two children: Travis (9), and Audrey (6).

David L. Huso is active in research. He received his PhD from John Hopkins University in 1988. He is an instructor in the Division of Comparative Medicine and the Retrovirus Biology Lab (1989-present). Dr. Huso and his wife, Angela Barmore Huso have one child Nicholas (1).

Patrick L. Huston is practicing in a mixed animal-beef consultant practice in Red Oak, IA with his associate R. C. Huston (ISU '62). He has received several awards including Outstanding Young Man (1984) and Who's Who in Vet Med (1987-88). He is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, AABP, Academy of Veterinary Consultants, and Academy of International Medicine. He and his wife Cindy have two children: Este (6) and Abby (4).

William R. Jepsen started a mixed animal practice in 1980 and sold it in 1986 after building the practice to four veterinarians. At that time he took the opportunity to return to the family farm. In addition to farming he does some part-time practice. He and his wife Nancy have three children, Matthew (8), Dan (5), and Amy (3). They reside in Heppner, Oregon.

Craig K. Johnson is in a mixed animal practice in Pomeroy and Manson, IA with his associate Steve Leppert (ISU '90). He is a member of the Pomeroy Lion's Club, the Manson Industrial Board, and the Wesley United Methodist Church of which he is a trustee. He and his wife Kathy have three children: Brent (10), Elias (7), and Natalie (5).

Mary B. Kenny is practicing in a small animal practice in a suburb of Minneapolis, MN with her associate Les Butman (U of M '52). She is a member of the AVMA, MVMA and is secretary of the Metropolitan Animal Hospital Association.

Darrel A. Kraayenbrink has been active in a large animal solo practice in Platte, SD since 1982. He and his wife Mary have three children: Nathan (10), David (7) and Sarah (4). He is a member of SDVMA, IVMA, AVMA, AASP, and AABP.

Eleanor J. Mackie (M.S., VMPM) is active in research at the Basel University Hospital, in Basel, Switzerland. From 1980-83, she practiced in a small animal practice in Canberra, Australia, in 1984 she did research in Switzerland, and in 1986 she received her PhD from the Department of Veterinary Anatomy at the University of Zurich. Dr. Mackie and her husband, Stuart R. Stone, have three children, Brangwen (age 10), Meredith (age 8), and Simon (age 6).

Arthur C. Metzger is practicing at Shadland Animal Hospital, a small animal practice in Indianapolis, IN. He is the current veterinary representative to the Animal Control Board, City of Indianapolis. He is also past president of Central Indiana VMA. He has two children: Christopher (6), and Allison (1).

Doug Morrison is the owner of Crivitz Veterinary Clinic, a mixed animal practice in Crivitz, WI. His associate is Monica Brilla (ISU '89). He is a member of the AVMA, WVMA, NEWVMA, AABP, WEPA, Lions, and Masonic Lodge. He is an Elder at Faith Presbyterian Church and is on the Board of directors of the County Humane Society. He and his wife Sue have two daughters: Caralee (3) and Kristin (1).

Michael Moulton is active in a small animal practice in Davenport, IA with his associate K. C. Cornish (ISU '87). He is a member of the IVMA, AVMA, and Quad Cities VMA. He is also on the Board of Directors for the Scott County Historical Preservation Society. He and his wife Melanie Landa have four children: Justin (12), Wade (9), Dane (6), and Kurt (3).

Mark J. Novotny is Assistant Professor of Clinical Pharmacology at the Atlantic Veterinary College in Prince Edward Island. He received his M. S. degree in Veterinary Pharmacology from the Univ. of Missouri-Columbia in 1987. He is currently in an ongoing Ph. D. program through the UMC. In 1988 he received the Superior Graduate Achievement Award. He and his wife Patricia M. Hogan, DVM, MS, have two children: Jennifer (7) and Stephanie (1).

Jean E. Hash Otte is the State Veterinarian for the Wisconsin Racing Board at Dairyland Greyhound Park in Kenosha, WI. From 1980 to 1990, she was a State Veterinarian for the West Virginia Racing Commission at Wheeling Downs, Wheeling, WV. She and her husband Bruce Otte were married in 1983 and have two children: Eric(6) and Evan (2).

Kathryn L. McGowan Owen is currently a clinical veterinarian for Laboratory Animal Resources at the ISU College of Veterinary Medicine. Prior to returning to ISU she spent four years in small animal practice and three years at the Univ. of Missouri-Columbia as a resident in Lab Animal Medicine. She is married to Ron D. Owen who is currently a senior vet student at ISU.

Michael A. Peterson is in mixed animal and zoo practice in Stoughton, WI. He is a member of the WVMA, Dane County VMA, Stoughton Junior Fair Board, and Stoughton Optimist Club, of which he is president. He married Theresa Amato in 1982 and they have three children: Kelly (8), Nichole (5), and Renee (2).

Gerald L. Pribyl is active in a small animal/exotics practice at the Gentle Doctor Animal Hospital in Las Vegas, NV. He and his wife, Mary have two children: Katie (8) and Nick (4). He was the president of the Clark Co. Veterinary Medical Association during 1988. He also belongs to the AVMA and AAHA. Dr. Pribyl's associate is Dr. Steve Storbeck (CSU '88).

Audrey Ricklefs is active in a solo small animal practice in Ames, Iowa. She and her husband, Kent Jay Schwartz, DVM have two children Trevor (4) and Regan (6). Dr. Ricklefs is an active member of the Ames Chamber of Commerce.

Cynthia A. K. Rigoni is active in feline practice at the All Cats Veterinary Clinic in Houston, Texas. She is President of the Board of the Houston Humane Society. Dr. Rigoni also belongs to the Texas Veterinary Medical Association, AVMA and to the AAFP. She resides in Houston with her husband, Kenneth.

Barbara A. Rush is active in practice. She is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and AAHA. Dr. Rush and her husband, Bruce Pichler, DPM have a four month old daughter, Amanda and live in West Des Moines.

Patrick E. Sexton is a mixed animal practitioner in Readlyn, IA with his associates: Dr. Matthew E. Sexton (ISU '79) and Dr. Philip Jardon (ISU '85). In 1981, Dr. Sexton did a large animal internship at the University of Saskatchewan and completed his M.S. degree in Theriogenology in 1983. He is presently on the Iowa Executive Board for the IVMA. Dr. Sexton and his wife, Stephanie reside in Readlyn, Iowa.

Michael C. Skov owns and operates a small animal exclusive hospital. He and his wife, Carol have two sons: Kyle (6) and Matthew (4). Dr. Skov has worked in SW Florida for ten years. He is a member of the AVMA, Florida VMA, and the Caloosa Veterinary Society.

Susan M. Stanley owns and practices at the St. Clair Animal Hospital in Fairview Heights, IL. She is a member of the Metro East VMA, Iowa and Illinois VMA, Southern Illinois VMA, and the AVMA. She was secretary of the Southern Illinois VMA for 6 years and is a member of the Fairview Heights Chamber of Commerce. In 1987, Dr. Stanley adopted a daughter, Morgan Katie (now 3 1/2).

Elizabeth J. Thatcher is active in a small animal practice at the Hickman Road Veterinary Clinic in Des Moines, Iowa. She is a member of the GDVMA, IVMA, AVMA, and OVMA. Dr. Thatcher is serving on the IVMA Ad Hoc Committee for Women Veterinarians and the Small Animal Committee. She is married to Dennis Moore.

Paul Van Roekel is active in food animal practice with his associates: Dr. David Smidt (ISU '74), Dr. Kirk Schuiteman (ISU '84), Dr. Richard Conger (U of G '88), and Dr. Shon Sawyer (ISU '90). He is a member of the AASP, AABP, National Mastitis Council, IVMA, Deacon of the First Reformed Church, President of Justice for All, President of the Sioux County Concert Series, and Big Brother Program. Dr. Van Roekel and his wife, Linda have a son, Heath (10).

Terese C. Weiser is active as a small animal practitioner at the Ada Animal hospital in Boise, Idaho. She is a member of the Idaho Veterinary Medical Association and the Boise Academy of Practitioners of which she was Secretary/Treasurer (1984-85). Dr. Weiser and her husband, Bill have 2 children: Matthew (6) and Chrissy (3).

Jim Wempe is active in a small animal practice in Bethel, Alaska. He is a member of SCVMA, ASVMA, AVMA, and AAHA. Dr. Wempe and his wife, Sandy Ringstead, have two sons: Matthew (6) and Samuel (2).

Janet Baker Wilson is active in small animal practice in Clutier, Iowa. She is a member of the Cedar Valley Veterinary Association, IVMA, Humane Education Committee, AVMA, and the Dysart Federated Women's Club. Dr. Wilson and her husband, William have two daughters: Laura (6) and Lindsay (3).

Steve Wilt is active in small animal practice in Medford, OR. He is a member of the AVMA, OVMA, Past President of the Rogue Valley VMA, Board of Directors Dogs for the Deaf, Rotary, Rogue Flyfishers Association, and Rocky Mountain Elk Association. Dr. Wilt and his wife, Cindy, have three daughters, Meredith (age 10), Hannah (age 6), and Alison (age 6).

Norman L. Wonderlich is active in a mixed large animal practice in Blooming Prairie, MN with his associates, Dr. John Walch (Minn. '63) and Dr. Vern Krebs (Minn. '72). He and his wife, Marjorie have three daughters: Andrea (10), Jessica (8), and Sara (5). Dr. Wonderlich is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, and AABP. He has served on the church council of the First Lutheran Church in Blooming Prairie, President of the Blooming Prairie Lions Club and is a member of the Blooming Prairie Economic Development Authority.

Jonita Woodbridge is active in a small animal practice at the Elk Creek Animal Hospital in Sioux City, Iowa. She practiced for 8 years in Waukegan, Illinois. Dr. Woodbridge is a member of the AVMA, IVMA, ISMAA, AAHA, Sioux City Veterinary Association, the Nebraska Academy of Veterinary Medicine, and is active in Grace United Methodist Church activities and the local Marriage Encounter Chapter. She and her husband, Alan Jacobsen have two sons: John (5) and Aaron (2).

Joanne L. Young is active in a 14 person equine practice. She is a member of AAEP, AVMA, and WSVMA (current chairman of the Public Information Committee). Dr. Young is also active in showing quarter horses on a local, state, and national level. She is married to Dr. John Mitten (WSU).