Jr. AVMA

The officers of the Junior Chapter of the AVMA for the present term are Q. M. McDonald, V.M. 3, president; R. K. Morrison, V.M. 3, president-elect; W. Hunter, V.M. 3, vice-president; R. J. Cowles, V.M. 2, secretary; and S. C. Benbrook, V.M. 3, treasurer.

The first meeting of the present year was held Oct. 8, 1947. Dean H. D. Bergman, the speaker of the evening, spoke on the aims of the AVMA and the history of the Division of Veterinary Medicine at Iowa State College. Following his address, the Dean introduced the members of the faculty to the group. The meeting was adjourned, and refreshments of cider and doughnuts were served.

The second meeting was held Oct. 28, 1947. The speaker of the evening was Dr. R. J. Beamer of Ottumwa, Iowa, who presented movies of work in his combined practice. He gave a lecture with the movies. It was decided that the final meeting of the fall quarter would be a social affair with the faculty and their wives, student wives and their families as guests.

The third regular meeting was held Nov. 19, 1947. The speaker of the evening was Mr. L. N. Gill, superintendent of schools at Jordan, Iowa, who spoke on the psychology of handling clientele. Dr. R. C. Klussendorf, Assistant Executive Secretary of the AVMA, was a guest for the evening and he presented some very interesting slides of the main office of the AVMA in Chicago, Ill. William Hunter, V.M. 3, was elected to fill a vacancy in the office of vice-president for the remainder of the fall term.
